12 Women Receive Their Certificates At Otto

Graduation certification were presented Thursday night, May 6, to members of the Otto Home Nursing Class by their Red Cross instructor, Mrs. George R. Patillo, in the presence of a large audience at the Otto school.

Miss Clara Norton president of the Otto Home Demonstration Club, presided.

Mr. Green, chairman of the Macon County Red Cross chapter, spoke on the activities of the Macon County chapter, listing the members of the Executive Board: Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, vice-chairman; Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson, secretary; Grover Jamison, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Church, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Lola P. Barrington, chairman of the Junior Red Cross; Dr. J. L. Stokes, home service chairman; Gilmer A. Jones, disaster chairman; and Mr. Horner Stockton finance chairman, Mrs. Florence Sherrill, home nursing chairman; Mrs. Josephine D. Gaines, first aid and Mrs. Charles Melichar, publicity.

Mr. Green announced that Miss Ethel Hurst had accepted the chairmanship of the Nutrition Committee in the place of Miss Gladys Maxwell. He also announced with regret that Mrs. Effie H. Perry had retired from the Board as Production chairman, but that she will continue to serve as chairman of Surgical Dressings and that Mrs. Allan Brooks had been asked to take the work of Production chairman.

Dr. J. L. Stokes outlined the services the Macon Red Cross chapter is performing for soldiers both in this country and overseas in a talk that told of "The Work of the Home Service Department of the Red Cross".

Mrs. Ralph Norton talked briefly on "What Home Nursing Means to Rural Women", and Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson outlined "What Red Cross Means to Service Men now and after the War".

A demonstration of the making of a hospital bed was done by Mrs. Leonard Myers.

The program itself was concluded with a skit by Mrs. Addie Norton and Mrs. Iris Henson, "How to Take Care of a Communicable Disease".

Mrs. George R. Patillo presented Home Nursing certificates to Mrs. Iris Henson, Mrs. Ralph Norton, Mamie Gladwell, Mrs. Ida Ramey, Mrs. Hattie Norton, Mrs. H. J. Bates, Mrs. Maggie Holbrooks, Mrs. Eli Cunningham, and Mrs. C. A. Moffitt.

Mrs. Patillo was presented with a gift of a salad set by the class, in appreciation of her services to them.

The United Nations are like four men in a boat, one having a pair of oars, one a cask of water, one a fish-hook, and one some oranges, says Roy F. Hendrickson. Who would be so foolish under such conditions as not to share what they have?

Sherman Ledford, at their home on Route 2.

A son, Fred Leonous, was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson of Route 2, at the Angel hospital, Thursday morning, May 13.
