CHURCH SUPPER AT HOME OF MISS NALL

The congregational Episcopal church supper held at the home of Miss Rebecca C. Nall, Saturday night, was attended by sixteen persons. Arrangements of white iris, lemon lilies and sprays of fringed ash centered the two tables. Vases of purple rhododendron, kalmia and pink peonies completed the decorations of the charming home. Miss Nall was assisted in serving the delicious supper by Mrs. A. Rockwell Nall, Miss Caroline Hall and the Misses Sarah and Isabel Hall.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector, conducted the business session following the supper when the affairs of the church were discussed. The Rev. William Baker, who has been supply pastor at the Church of the Messiah in Murphy, was named as part time minister for the Sundays Mr. Morgan will be absent because of his work in Kanuga. For the remainder of the summer, services will be held at eleven o'clock each Sunday morning.

It was decided at this meeting that the Episcopal church should join with the other three Highlands churches in holding Sunday afternoon services for the colored people during the summer season. Its first service will be held the Fourth Sunday afternoon with Mr. Morgan in charge.

Artist Huger Elliott's lovely gift of new church paintings, which have replaced the former paintings given by him more than twenty years ago, received special mention, and the secretary was instructed to send Mr. Elliott a letter of appreciation on behalf of the church.

A social half hour was enjoyed after the business meeting.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO HOLD JUNE MEETING

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will hold its June meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles J. Anderson. The program on Synod's and Presbytery's Missions will be under the direction of Mrs. Elliot Caziarc, secretary for this cause in the local auxiliary.

USE OF KEY NUMBERS SUGGESTED BY P. M. POTTS

Most of the postoffices in the United States have adopted a system of key numbers to designate the different sections of the city, according to an announcement made by Postmaster C. C. Potts, who said that in order for mail to be handled in the quickest possible manner, all persons should use the key number of the addressee in all of their correspondence. Mr. Potts gave the following example of the new type address:

John Doe,
 349 Oxford Place,
 Atlanta, 3,
 Georgia.

He also said the use of key numbers would in many instances save as much as a day's time in the delivery of mail, hastening it in all cases.

MRS. GILBERT HOSTESS TO WEDNESDAY CARD CLUB

Mrs. E. R. Gilbert was hostess to the card club at a bridge-luncheon Wednesday. A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the luncheon and in the card-table centerpieces where it was served. Decorating the rooms were purple and white iris and pink peonies. Guest players included Mrs. John C. Blanchard, Mrs. Elliott Caziarc, Miss Sara Gilder, Ms. O. E. Young and Ms. Jack Wilcox.

High score went to Miss Gilder. High score club prize was won by Mrs. C. H. Menger, and Mrs. D. L. Tarry on the traveling prize.

B. Y. P. U. WEINER ROAST AT HARRIS LAKE

About fifteen members of the Junior B. Y. P. U. pooled their ration points and enjoyed a weiner roast at Harris Lake, Tuesday night, under the supervision of their leader, Paul Walden. After the supper, games were played by the camp fire, and as a final wind-up, Mr. Walden led the party in a unique snipe hunt. If you are unacquainted with a B. Y. P. U. snipe hunt, you have missed the very "creepy" feeling experienced by those who have found themselves left holding the snipe bag alone in some dark lonely spot.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Friday nights, a bunch of us fellows all get together over at Bill Webster's place. We don't play cards; we don't sing or carry on. We just sit quietly over a glass or two of beer and talk about world affairs and local politics, and what not. You mightn't think that just setting and talking would be so much fun. But it is. And it's wonderful how friendly talk over a glass or two of beer can bring out the best in people — good sense, for instance, and good fellowship, and tolerance. From where I sit, there ought to be more of this quiet talk over a glass of beer. Helps folk understand each other—and be more friendly to each other in these trying times.

When little Bill was asked his opinion of the baby at his aunt's house, he said: "She's okay, I guess, but she only has three teeth in her lower plate. Daddy's got a lot of teeth in his!"
