BIBLE THOUGHT

Whoso hath this world's good and seeth that his brother have need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? —1 St. John 3:17.

The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide;
Above the world is stretched the sky,—
No higher than the soul is high.
The heart can push the sea and land
Farther away on either hand;
The soul can split the sky in two,
And let the face of God shine through.

From Renascence. —Edna St. Vincent Millay.

United War Fund A Chance To Give

DO you have a guilty feeling when you spend for indulgence? Do without it, and give the money to the United War Fund. This must be the spirit of those at home. Throughout the length and breadth of this fair land, untouched by the horrors that others—some of them our own—are suffering, the opportunity now comes to GIVE.

Let no one say, when asked for a gift for this globe-encircling mercy fund, "My husband has made a donation", or "I have contributed through this-or-that organization." If you cannot give generously, in the name of one you love and who will receive the ministrations of this world war chest, then think and give for these:

A Greek mother whose baby will die without American drugs.

A British child, dumb from bombing raids, enabled to receive treatment to recover speech.

A starving Chinese boy with matchstick legs fed back to life.

Precious supplies to feed the starving and assuage the suffering of the next country we invade.

Or the weary service man who gets a lift at a U.S.O. Center.

Or a seaman, for rest in a hospital before he returns; perhaps to face again a sea of torpedoes and blazing oil.

Seeing these, can you spend for the luxury?

Thinking of these, can you not forego the luxuries and some necessity to "Give until it hurts; then give until it doesn't hurt?"

There are thousands of brave-hearted giving themselves. How many great-hearted will give to help them?

WAC Unit For North Carolina

AN intensive campaign has been launched to recruit North Carolina women for a state unit of the Woman's Army Corps, which is indorsed and led by Governor Broughton. This is part of an All-States recruiting campaign which has the full support of the Army.

Major General William Bryden, commanding the Fourth Service Command with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia, has issued an appeal to qualified women to meet the challenge of this appeal of their country—an opportunity never before offered in its history.

With the news of the drafting of fathers, there can remain no doubt in the mind of any qualified woman that her country needs her to do a man-sized job, releasing a man for more arduous duties, General Bryden has stated.

It has been announced that each unit will bear its state's name, carry the flag and be identified by a distinctive shoulder insignia throughout the period of training.

On Top of the World!

YES, she's on top of the world... her fairyland world of fun and play and rides on Daddy's shoulder.

It's a world of glorious new adventures by day... of song and love and laughter... of peace and pleasant dreams at night... a world that knows no hate or hunger, no fear of sudden death, no terror of families torn apart.

It's the kind of a world that the 42,000 men and women of the Southern Railway System are fighting for... repairing cars and locomotives in record-breaking time... finding new and better ways to "railroad"... always managing, somehow, to do "the impossible."

For they know... these men and women of the Southern Railway... that, by doing these things, they are helping to win the war.

They know, too, that they are learning how better to serve the Greater South that will emerge with Victory... the Southland in which the little children will truly be "on top of the world"... laughing and playing without fear... and growing up in a veritable fairyland of exciting new opportunities for all.
