NOTE OF THANKS

It has been said that "Every prophet hath honor save in his own country"—I'm not so sure. Not that I class myself as a "prophet"—but I do want to thank those of my home town and county, and others, for the warm response, both oral and written, given my book of poems, "Singing Of The Heart." The music of Courage, of Truth and Beauty in the hearts of the people does much toward giving the poet his song. I hope that, as time passes, I may become a more worthy medium for that expression.

Deepest appreciation to my appreciative friends, including those I have not met.

BESS HINSON HINES Highlands.

Mrs. E. C. Rivnac of Fontana Dam is spending a week with the Misses Nourse and Hancock at their home on Bearpen Mountain.

Mrs. Claude Sullivan and young son, Claude, Jr., of Greenville, S. C., who have spent the past several weeks at the Sullivan home on Fifth street, expect to be here through the remainder of October.

Even in the United States, where diets are comparatively good, a program of adequate consumption will require 15 to 25 percent more eggs than in pre-war days; 40 percent more tomatoes and citrus fruits; 70 to 80 percent more milk and milk products; and 125 to 150 percent more leafy vegetables.

"TOPS IN TASTE"

From where I sit ...

by Joe Marsh

Charlie Jenkins writes me from down at camp:

"Dear Joe: Somethin' mighty swell happened to me on my last day's leave. I'm standin' on the corner, not knowin' anybody in town, when a stranger says 'hello, soldier—how'd you like a chicken dinner at home with me and the wife?'"

"Well, it turns out they were the kind of folks who couldn't do enough to help out soldiers. They'd invited two other fellows and just as soon as we're introduced the lady brings us a glass of beer before dinner.

"We had a fine dinner, talked till ten ... Honest, Joe, I'll never forget their hospitality. Makes me feel good fighting for people like that."

Thought you might like to hear what kind o' fellows we got in this army of ours, and how they like to enjoy themselves when they get a chance to.
