Now, they are doing more—they are manning stations as members of one of America's most important services—the WAVES of the United States Navy!

Why these North Carolina girls tell you

Come on in—the WAVES are Fine!

TRAVEL Anne Tisdale of Rocky Mount had always dreamed of travel to far, interesting places. "Now I'm actually here in New York," she says, "and I'm looking forward to seeing many other interesting places during my Naval service." You will, too—when you're a WAVE of the United States Navy!

EXCITEMENT Dull, commonplace work couldn't satisfy Faye White of Gastonia. She wanted an important, exciting job. "I'm training for it now," she writes. "I want to operate a Link Trainer—teaching men 'blind flying.' It's exciting work and I wouldn't trade it for any other job in the world!" Nor would you!

SMARTNESS Like every girl, Marjorie Guilory (left) of Whiteville loves pretty clothes. She's wearing them in the WAVES! "Every one of my uniforms was designed by Mainbocher—and you know what that means in fashion!" she says. "No wonder every style authority—and every man—has said that our WAVES' uniforms are the smartest of any service in the world!" You'll be just as proud of your WAVE uniform!

SPORTS Here's Eula Lipe of Winston-Salem with Lt. (jg) Helen Hull Jacobs, former American singles tennis champion, at the U. S. Naval Training School (WR), New York. "You'd be surprised how many sports champions are in the WAVES," she says. "Swimming, tennis, why, there isn't any sport you could name that we WAVES don't enjoy!" You'll enjoy sports—with interesting people—when you're a WAVE!

PRIDE Put yourself in this picture—as another North Carolina girl doing a grand job—helping win the war—as a WAVE! You'll find it the best job you've had—more exciting, more important, more appreciated, with more chance for real advancement! Yes, you'll take pride in being a WAVE—backing up North Carolina fighting men as North Carolina women have always done—in every war our country has fought!

HUNDREDS of North Carolina girls are now serving their country as WAVES... but America needs thousands more—and needs them now!

So it's squarely up to you... to do more towards winning the war... to take your place beside North Carolina's fighting men in the Navy... as a uniformed member of the WAVES.

Now—this very minute—send for your copy of the interesting and informative booklet, "The Story of You in Navy Blue." It answers every question you want to ask—from rate of pay to the interesting work you'll do. Write WAVES, Raleigh.
