U. D. C. OFFERS PRIZE TO H. S. STUDENTS

At their meeting on Monday afternoon at Mrs. A. B. Slagle's, the United Daughters of the Confederacy voted to offer a prize to the Franklin high school students for the best essay on a subject of historical interest. Mrs. Thomas J. Johnston was appointed chairman to arrange with the school faculty for the contest. The prize will be presented at the close of school. This revives the custom of the Macon county chapter which has lapsed for several years.

Mrs. J. Ward Long appointed the following committees to serve through the year.

Finance committee, Mrs. Lester Conley, chairman, Mrs. W. M. Parrish, Miss Nora Leach and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle; credential committee, Mrs. Lon Campbell, Mrs. A. B. Slagle, Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson and Mrs. George M. Slagle; sick or visiting committee, Mrs. T. J. Johnston, Mrs. Zeb W. Conley and Miss Lilly Rankin; year book committee, Mrs. J. W. Long, Miss Lilly Rankin and Mrs. T. J. Johnston.

The hour of the monthly meetings was changed from 3 o'clock until 3:30 o'clock.

The treasurer, Mrs. W. M. Parrish, reported that all Confederacy obligations had been met by the chapter for this year.

The chapter voted to make Mrs. Sam L. Rogers, who is a charter member, an honorary member.

The April meeting is scheduled to be held with Mrs. Zeb W. Conley.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Slagle, served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.
