LADIES' NIGHT AND ROTARIAN DINNER

Highlands Inn was the scene of a "ladies' night" Thursday, when Highlands Rotarians entertained the Franklin club and visiting Rotarians with a dinner meeting. S. C. Russell presided at the meeting and acted as master of ceremonies. Prominent speakers on the program were B. G. Tennant of Asheville, 190th District Governor; Ralph Cain, superintendent of D.A.R. School at Tomassis, S. C., and past president of the Walhalla Rotary club, and Nat C. Wilson, of the Atlanta Rotary club, regional director of the Southeastern division of the American Red Cross. H. W. Cabe of Franklin made a few remarks on the progress of the Fifth War Loan Drive.

Mrs. Graham W. King, concert singer of Delray Beach, Fla., favored the assembly with three vocal solos, assisted by Mrs. O. F. Summer at the piano.

Guy L. Houk presented W. C. Ball, retiring president of the Thomasville, Ga., club, with a fancy gift in behalf of the Franklin club, and, by request of the club, a package of "wild oats" was presented to Frank B. Cook.

Seventy-five persons enjoyed the occasion.

LAWRENCE SCHWAB WELL-KNOWN PRODUCER VISITS HIGHLANDS

Among the distinguished visitors in Highlands this summer are Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Schwab of New York and Miami who are guests at Highlands Manor. Mr. Schwab is one of New York's well-known producers, with "Desert Song," "Good News," and various other Broadway musicals to his credit. He is now writing a series of articles for the Saturday Evening Post. Mr. Schwab has just returned from St. Louis, Mo., where he was consultant director for the St. Louis Opera. This is the same institution where Watson Barratt is art director and production manager.

Mr. Barratt's wife, the former Miss Louise Bascom, editor of the New York Visitor, and her friend, Miss Helen Augur, of New York, have been spending several days here at Mrs. Barratt's summer home on Satulah Mountain.

DAVIS HOME LEASED FOR THIS SEASON

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reno and their daughter, Miss Betty Joyce Reno, of Detroit, Mich., have leased the W. S. Davis house on the corner of First and West Main streets for the season, and are very much charmed with this section.

Making as a photographer, Mr. Reno said that in all his travels he has never found such wonderful scenic subject for pictures, and that in his estimation the combination of hospitable people, climate and scenery in this vicinity has no equal. The Renos are now planning to make Highlands their future home.

Personal Mention

S. M. 3/C Hampton Saussy has returned to sea duty after a short furlough spent here with his mother, Mrs. George Saussy, Sr., at Highfield, their summer home on the Walhalla Road.

Mrs. W. D. Beacham and her daughter, Miss Martha Beacham of Decatur, Ga., arrived last week and have opened their summer cottage in the Shortoff section for the season.

The monthly supper of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation was held last week at the home of the Misses Charlotte B. and Esther Elliott. The supper was served picnic fashion on the spacious lawn, where the guests enjoyed the magnificent sunset.

Miss Beatrice Beddoe of Ft. Lauderdale-by-the-sea, Florida, is spending some time here visiting Mrs. D. E. Linardy at her home in Horse Cove Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hodgson, their daughter, Miss Mary Hodgson, and Mrs. Hodgson's mother, Mrs. James L. Logan, of Atlanta, have opened their summer home on Cullasaja Drive for the season, and have as their guests Lt. E. C. Snyder of Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. J. M. Morrow of Auburn-dale, Fla., is this week opening her home on the slopes of Satulah Mountain, which she and Mr. Morrow purchased last season from Mrs. O. E. Young. Mr. Morrow is expected to arrive next week.

Mrs. Louis A. Edwards and son, Louis, have recently returned to Highlands to make their home while Captain Edwards is on overseas duty. Mrs. Edwards has as her guest an aunt who will entertain a number of houseparties of South Georgia friends during the summer.

Friends of Miss Rebecca Nall will be interested to know that she is convalescing from an appendectomy at Angel hospital in Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Widman and their two sons have returned from Shaker Heights, Ohio, and are at the Hoke cottage at the Country Club.

Ensign Antonina K. McCully has returned to the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md., following a short visit here with her father, Vice-Admiral N. A. McCully, who is spending the summer at the Appley cottage at Hemlock Lawn.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Logie and son, of Coral Gables, Fla., have leased one of the Appley cottages at Hemlock Lawn and are here for the summer.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Fishing's a Morale Builder, too!

Willie Wells was always fond of fishing. Now he writes from somewhere overseas:

"There's a song the fellers sing, goes: 'Praise the Lord, we ain't a-goin' fishin'—and I guess it's so. But you know, dad, sometimes I sure wish I were back fishing for trout in Seward's Creek again."

And I guess that's the way all our soldiers feel. They're fighting a war—and they mean to fight it to a finish—till they can come home to the little pleasures that they've missed so much—the sweet feel of a trout rod... a pleasant glass of beer with friends... the smell of Mom's fresh baking from the kitchen...

From where I sit, we folks at home have an important obligation—to keep intact the little things that they look forward to... from the trout rod waiting in the corner to the beer that's cooling in the ice box. Don't you agree?

THIS BEACHHEAD IS BIG ENOUGH FOR ALL OF US

RIGHT NOW, while you are reading this, men are dying—American men, giving their lives to establish beachheads from which they can sweep on to Victory.

That's their duty—to smash the Nazis and the Japs, and all they represent, once and for all—to make this a better world to live in—for you. And they never stop to ask the cost.

You're an American—you have a duty, too! Here's your chance to do your share—to fight by their side on every bitter beachhead in the world. The 5th War Loan is on—the biggest Drive for Dollars in all history. You know how you can help: BUY WAR BONDS WITH EVERY DOLLAR YOU HAVE! Now is the time to buy extra Bonds—as many as you can.

If you are already buying Bonds on a payroll savings plan, whoever you are, whatever you do, ask yourself this question: "What did I do today that some mother's son should die for me tonight?" Then double the Bonds you bought before—make them know you're with them! And not next week or next month, but NOW, when every bullet and every dollar counts MOST!

And Here Are 5 MORE Reasons for Buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Back the Attack!
