TENANT FARMERS GET FERTILIZER PRICE AID

Landlords selling fertilizers to tenant farmers cannot charge more than the applicable retail price of these products, the Office of Price Administration has ruled. An additional markup by landlords never was authorized, the agency stated.

CIGARETTES TO GO UNRATIONED

The shortage of cigarettes experienced throughout the country reflects the bad distribution due to war time conditions and the fact that the armed forces are now smoking a fourth of the country's total production, but no rationing of them is contemplated, the Office of Price Administration states.

Murphy 'Bulldogs' Snap Franklin 'Panthers', 27-7

The Franklin 'Panthers' invaded the territory of the Murphy 'Bulldogs' last Thursday, to be turned back a 27-7 score in an at times thrilling game of football. The Panthers didn't hit their pace until it was too late. They fought a good fight. The 'Bulldogs' were a much more improved team than they were when the Panthers tackled them on their home field earlier in the season.

Coach Crawford is pleased with the spirit in which they have been able to take the licks they have in good spirit and still fight back. The Murphy game was a moral victory because there was no doubt about the refereeing and the Panthers admitted they were beaten fairly by a smart football team.

Franklin's lone touchdown came as a result of a long pass from Myers to Cabe in the end zone.

On next Friday, Dec. 1, the Panthers take the road for the last game of the season with the Sylva 'Hurricanes' at Sylva. The gleaming, fiery eye of every Panther, shows a determination to win.

A SOLDIER'S PLEA

Dear Mother:
Are they praying for us at home
Are they meeting together for prayer,
Or going on still in the usual way,
As they did when I was there?

We thank them all for their money,
We thank them all for their care;
But, Oh, just tell them, dear Mother,
We are needing so much their prayer.

Will you ask them to gather together,
To meet at our Father's Throne,
That we may be kept from faltering,
When we feel we are standing alone;

There are moments when courage fails us,
And dangers around us stare;
Do tell them again, dear Mother,
We are needing so much their prayer.
—YOUR SOLDIER BOY,
In Australia."

For Where Your Treasure Is

Each time I smell the honey-suckle vine,
Traverse at night a quiet, wooded lane,
Hear a sweet voice, or taste delight of wine,
I think of you, and by my thinking gain.

A man must love. He's judged by what he loves.
And if he loves two lovely eyes of green,
A pair of gentle hands in soft, white gloves,
A certain subtle smile he's often seen;

And if one form attracts, two lips entrance;
He loves not these alone,
Though loves them still:
For soul must capture soul in true romance.

The heart is not enough:
Love needs the will.
"By what you love you're judged"; if this be true,
How need I fear of judgment, loving you?

—Sgt. Chas. Wm. Phillips.
