

Letters To Santa Claus

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy, 5 years old. I can read and write. I've been a good little boy, and I'm looking for you to come see me. Please bring me a football, truck, and tricycle if you can find any this year; and fruits, nuts and candy. Remember my little sister. She has always good, and the other little boys and girls.

Thank you Santa Claus.
Your little friend,
Edwin Robinson.

Dear Santa Claus:
We are two little boys, I Richard am 5 years old. Please bring me a gun set, story book, a truck, if you have one, also candy, nuts and oranges. I Jerry, will soon be 3 years old. Please bring me a train and picture book, also candy, oranges, apples and nuts.

Your little friend,
Richard Jerry Patton.

Dear Santa Claus:
We are good little boys, two and four years old. Please bring us for Christmas, a guitar, farm animals, nuts, oranges, and we want you to remember our daddy at Christmas time. He is somewhere in Alaska, in the U. S. Navy. Thank you very much.

Your little boys,
Grady and Eugene Moffitt.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl 5 years old, and I want you to bring me for Christmas a big doll and a tea set and a pair of gloves, candy, oranges, nuts, and don't forget my little brother Charles, he wants a gun and a tricycle and some marbles, and a new cap and some mittens, oranges, candy, nuts, and don't forget my uncles and all the other soldiers who are overseas.

Yours truly,
Ruth and Charles Peek.

Dear Santa:
I am a little boy 3 years old. For Christmas, I want a blackboard, a box of colored chalk, a horse and cart and a little candy. Please, Santa, don't forget every little boy and girl whose daddy is far away from them this Xmas, serving our country and Jesus.

Steve Waldroop.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy, 5 years old, from Six Killer-Ranches. I want you to bring me a train, a gun, also a teddy bear, and I'll be a good little boy. Please don't forget all other little boys and girls. I want some candy and nuts too. So good-bye Santa.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl, 5 years old. I have one sister, Esta Mae, and one brother, Donald Edwin. We are afraid Santa Claus won't find us, so please print this letter and tell him where we are. For Christmas, we want some candy and nuts. A doll, some new dresses for we lost all our clothes in Norfolk, Virginia, in October. For our little brother, we want a wagon, a little toy gun, and I guess that is about all this time. Daddy and mother can buy the rest.

Edna Rae,
Esta Mae and Donald Dills.

Dear Santa Claus:
I thought I would write you to tell you what I wanted. I want a machine gun, knife, fountain pen and a game. I will have you and Mrs. Santa Claus a cake on the table. We will have Christmas tree in our living room and the lights will be on it. And please don't forget my cousin in North Carolina and in Oregon and do not forget the poor children either. My sisters is going to write you a letter and tell you what they want.

Your friend,
Carol Grubbs.

Dear Santa Claus:

The Christmas tree is lighted,
And tipped with one bright star
To shed a radiant blessing,
No matter where you are.

The candles, too, are burning,
And each one is a prayer
For God to bless your Christmas,
And keep you in His care.
