

T. B. Enloe, Well-Known Citizen, Passes Thursday

Funeral services for Thomas Bascom Enloe, 88, were held at the Maiden's Chapel Methodist church on Upper Cartoogechaye on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the Rev. V. N. Allen, pastor, officiating, assisted by the Rev. J. F. Marehman, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Enloe, a life-long resident of Macon county died very suddenly and unexpectedly at his home on Thursday night at midnight, although he had been in declining health for a number of months.

Mr. Enloe, who was the son of the late Lucius and Mary Roane Enloe, had taught in the public schools in Macon county for several years and later devoted his time to farming and raising livestock. In his latter years he opened a dairy. He was married to the former Miss Clara Allman, who preceded him in death six years ago.

The pallbearers were A. B. Slagle, Ras Penland, Carl S. Slagle, Henry W. Cabe, Frank Reece, Burnell Waldroop, Harold Brookshire and Arthur Pannell.

Surviving is one daughter, Miss Irene Enloe, of Franklin route 1, and three sons, Turner and Chalmers Enloe, of Franklin route 1, and Albert Enloe, of Akron, Ohio; three brothers, Jeff Enloe, Franklin route 1, Charlie Enloe, of Blairsville, Ga., and Bill Enloe, of Tulsa, Okla., five sisters, Mrs. E. J. Bidwell, of Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Minnie Reed, Springfield, Mass., and Misses Lula, Ida and Nan Enloe, of Atlanta, Ga.

Bryant funeral directors were in charge of the arrangements.

S. I/C Edgar N. Guffey and Mrs. Guffey have returned home from Deland, Fla., and will spend a 15 day leave with Mr. Guffey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Guffey. Mr. Guffey has been in the armed forces for the past two years. He has a brother, John, serving in the Ninth Army in Germany.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends, neighbors, Bryant Funeral Home, and others for their sympathy and kindness shown during the sickness and death of our father, T. B. Enloe.

The Enloe Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown during the sickness and death of our husband and father, Mack Hopper. We particularly appreciate the active and honorary pallbearers' kindness. Also the many beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Mack Hopper and Sons.

Mrs. Frank H. Hill

Highlands Resident, Died Friday, May 11

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank H. Hill, 85, who died Friday, May 11 at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Norris, in Horse Cove Valley, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, with the Rev. J. B. Davidson, pastor of the Highlands Presbyterian church, of which she was a member, and the Rev. W. T. Medlin, Jr., pastor of the Methodist church in charge. Burial was in the Hill cemetery in Horse Cove.

Pallbearers were S. C. Russell, W. H. Cobb, C. J. Anderson, W. R. Potts, Daniel Edwards, F. B. Cook, T. N. Hall, F. A. Edwards and Thomas Picklesimer.

Mrs. Hill was the daughter of the late Dr. Charles L. Frost of Highlands and Mary Stevens Frost of Virginia. She was born in Sacramento, Calif., in 1860, her father having left his medical practice in New York to join the throngs of people who turned westward during the days of the California gold rush.

Dr. Frost was one of the charter members and organizers of the Union Pacific Railway Co., in San Francisco, and was for many years closely identified with the early development of California. Following his wife's death in 1888, Dr. Frost returned to his old home in New York, where Mrs. Hill spent her girlhood. She was graduated from Quaker College Friends Academy, Locust Valley, L. I., a college built and endowed by her uncle, Gideon Frost. She came to Highlands in 1879 and was married to Frank H. Hill in 1880.

Mrs. Hill spent the greater part of her life in Horse Cove, where she endeared herself to her neighbors and friends, taking the greatest interest in everything pertaining to the development of the country which had become her home. Her love and loyalty to the mountains and to the people were outstanding. She was a musician of great ability and an ardent lover of nature and of all things beautiful. In the early 1900's Mrs. Hill organized the first Sunday school in Horse Cove in which she maintained a deep interest up to the time of her illness three years ago.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Hill is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. J. Norris of Highlands and Atlanta, Mrs. W. P. Sloan, Highlands, a son Harry Hill, Wilmington, and one brother, Charles Frost of California. Four children preceded her in death, Leonard Frost Hill, John Hoyt Hill, Stanhope W. Hill and an infant daughter, Mary Hill.

Survivors also include the following grandchildren: Mrs. John C. Flippin, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. L. S. Turner, Atlanta; Mrs.
