500 Locker Freezer Plant To Be Constructed Here

Building To Be Erected Pvt. John C. Henry, Nazi For Adequate Supply Of Macon County

W. S. Bearden, of Clayton, Ga., R. S. O'mohundro and A. B. O'mohundro, both of Franklin, have purchased a lot from A. B. Slagle on highway 64, within the town limits and will begin construction of a 500 Locker Freezer Plant, within the coming two weeks, Mr. Bearden stated Wednesday.

The building will be built of brick and tile and will be 50 feet by 100 feet. It will be an up-to-date modern plant and will have enough lockers to supply the families in Macon county. However, in order to get priorities for building the plant, it will be necessary to rent at least 60 per cent of the lockers in advance.

In addition to the locker service, Mr. Bearden stated, there will also be a meat curing plant. This plant will be erected on a spacious lot with ample parking space for the custo-

The new plant will be known as the Macon County Frozen Foods Incorporated,

Mr. Bearden is agent for the Sinclair Refining Company in Clayton, Ga., and also in Franklin, and R. S. O'mohundro is owner and manager of the Variety Store and A. B. O'mohundro is owner and manager of the Western Auto Associate Store, both business places of

Prisoner, Liberated

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry, of the Ellijay section of Macon county, have recently had a letter from their son, John C. Henry, stating that he is a free man once more after being a prisoner of the German War since February 18, 1943.

A part of the letter is as fol-lows: "I'm free mother. Can you possibly imagine what that means to me? I'm so excited I can't write properly. I'm a bit sick mother—from eating too much. I've been eating and eating every since I've been liberated. I'm coming home soon and I can't possibly tell you how excited I am. Maybe I'll get home sometime in June. There are two things I'll never forget. The greatest and most human are the American Red Cross and the lousiest and the most inhuman people-the Jer-

Enlisting in the United States Army in 1938 at the age of 17 Pvt. Henry has had a colorful career in two armies-The United States and the Canadian army. After two years he reenlisted and was sent to a post in Minnesota.

Seeing no chance of the United States getting into the war in Europe at the time, he obtained a discharge and crossed into Canada where he enlisted immediately in the Royal Canadian forces and was soon sent to England.

Shortly after Pvt. Henry's arrival in England he wrote home describing a German air attack on three troop trains en route to Scotland. He told of being a passenger on the first train, which was unscratched, while the second and third trains were badly damaged with many casualties among the troops.

While still a member of the Canadian army he became engaged to a Welch girl, Rita Tanner. A German bomb killed her while she was sitting at his side and he escaped uninjured. In 1942 he obtained a transfer back to the United army and was sent to North Africa in December. He was in active duty there until he was reported missing in action in

American Legion Benefit Show Enjoyed By Large Crowd

Franklin American Legion Post No. 108 sponsored a good show at the Court House, Sat-urday night, June 9. The "Crazy Tennesseans" put on a good performance worthy of praise in or out of their own pasture. They are well known for their programs over station WROL, Knoxville.

Lon Dalton, Post commander, is to be thanked for bringing this excellent entertainment here. He and Frank Reese handled the affair with cooperation of other Legionaires.

A total of $181.00 was taken in by the Legion, which after deduction of Federal tax, will be put into the fund for local emergency aid to veterans of World War I and II and their families.

The Legion hopes to have 'The Crazy Tennesseans' back for a return engagement. If they live up to Saturday night's performance in their new show we'll have to build a new court house to accomodate the crowd.

Last Year's Pumpkin In Perfect Condition

Samuel J. Murray, of Iotla street, brought into the Press office last week a pumpkin that he raised last year that was sound and in perfect eating

Mr. Murray states that he finds no trouble in keeping pumpkins through the winter months provided they do not get chilled or overheated. He kept this one in an up-stairs room through the winter. Members of the Press force are looking forward to the delicious pies that will be made from this pumpkin, and we hope that Mr. Murray will have hope that Mr. Murray will have of Franklin, and Mrs. Cora the same good limb with his Sanders, of Canton. Less Than Half Of Macon 7th War Loan Quota Sold To Date

A report from the Federal Reserve Bank in Richmond, Va., shows that Macon county has to-date sold a total of $70.687.-50 in the E bond sales and that the overall total has reached $96,731.50, according to a report made by Gilmer A. Jones, co-chairman of the Seventh War Loan Drive Thursday.

This is a considerable pick-up over the report of last week, however, we are far short of reaching our quota of $164,000.00 in the E series of the overall quota of $218,000.00, and with only four more weeks to raise OUR VICTORY E BOND FLAG.

Citizens of Macon county, dig out those hidden dollars and convert them into E Bonds. We realize this is a long and tedious drive and a lot of bonds are to be sold, but it can be done and it must be done. Our boys in the Pacific can't quitand we can't stop either.

Members of the Junior Civil Air Patrol will have charge of the bond sales at the Bank of Franklin on Saturday morning, it has been announced by Mrs. J. E. S. Thorpe, chairman of the Woman's Division of the county. The girls include Misses Ruth Angel, Ann Lyle, Freda Mae Arnold, Jane McCracken, Bobetta Dean and Barbara Con-
