Highlands Rotary Club

THE Franklin Press and Highlands Maconian extends a cordial welcome to the newly-chartered Rotary Club of Highlands. To its first officers we offer our congratulations. We offer, too, our approval of the Club's announced objectives, which are:

1. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.
2. The fostering of high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.
3. The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business, and community life.
4. The advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

Since the first Rotary Club was organized in Chicago, Ill., in 1905, Rotary has traveled to such far-off places as China, South Africa, the Fiji Islands, Egypt, Syria, India, Ceylon, Iceland, Palestine—in fact, it has taken root in more than 50 countries of the world. In two-score years, the Rotary ideal of service has spread throughout the world and there are now more than 5,200 Rotary Clubs, with a membership of nearly a quarter of a million Rotarians.

We look for great things from the Highlands Rotary Club. Within the Club will be built a warm friendship and understanding between men representing the various businesses and professions in that village. On that firm foundation, the Club and its individual members will undertake activities, based on Rotary's "service" ideals, which will promote higher standards in business and professional life, make the community a better place in which to live, and contribute to the formation in the community of an informed viewpoint on world affairs.

13 Graduate

From Highlands High School; Exercises Held Thursday Night

The thirteen members of Highlands high school graduating class received diplomas at exercises in the school auditorium Thursday night, June 7. The invocation was given by Dr. Thom N. Carter, pastor of Highlands Baptist church. E. B. Whitaker, attorney of Bryson City, delivered the address to the graduating class before a capacity house. Speaking on "Peace and Security" Mr. Whitaker said that the "peace and security of a nation rests on the collective action, thought and conduct of the individual."

The two student speakers on the program were Miss Edith McCall, salutatorian, and Miss Barbara Zoellner, valedictorian. In presenting the diplomas, Guy L. Houk, county school superintendent, told the graduating class that to "know everything about something, and something about everything" was a very good motto.

The presentation of the medals was made by O. F. Summer, principal, who said giving something to somebody always made him very happy. The good citizenship medal was presented to Ed Talley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jabe Talley. Edna Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Norton, won honorable mention in connection with the citizenship award. The salutatory medal went to Edith McCall.

In addition to the valedictory medal, Barbara Zoellner won the engraved Certificate of Award from the Editors of the Reader's Digest, together with an honorary year's subscription to that magazine, given annually since 1937 to the student who stands highest in the senior class. Miss Zoellner also received the Danforth Foundation award, a book entitled "I Dare You", given for outstanding qualities of leadership. Other members of the graduating class were Jean Keener, Angela Anderson, Peggy Potts, Bessie Penland, Mary Lou Hedden, Frances Penland, Margaret Wiley, Jessie Vinson, Eugene Edwards, Lyman Wilson and Frances Crunkleton.

Class mascots from the first grade were Anne Harbison and Tommy Norton, who wore caps and gowns similar to those worn by the graduating class. Marshalls were Betty Speed, Frances Hedden, Anne Anderson and Edna Norton.

DEFICIT IN FATS MUST BE MET BY KITCHEN SALVAGE

UFA Administrator Chester Bowles Calls Attention of Women to Bonus in Red Points and Cash for Saving Grease

"American housewives have been cooperating splendidly in the Fat Salvage Program, but it is imperative that they save even more fats this year than in the past", says Chester Bowles, Administrator of Office of Price Administration.

Chester Bowles

"This is necessary because wartime requirements will exceed supplies unless the deficit is made up by saving used household fats. Despite the rapid advance of our forces in the Pacific it will probably be a year before oil shipments can be resumed from there", Mr. Bowles declared.

So the 1945 goal for salvaged fats has been set at 250 million pounds as compared with the 170 million pounds saved last year.

"If all the 31,000,000 American housewives living in private dwellings saved even one tablespoon of used fat every day, this would add up to 353 million pounds in a year!"

"For adding to the Nation's supply of fats by turning in used fat, housewives are being given two red points and up to 4 cents for every pound", Mr. Bowles stated. "The Nation needs this used fat!"
