MISS ANNETTE MOORE BECOMES BRIDE OF CAPTAIN W. R. GARBER

The marriage of Miss Annette Moore, daughter of Mrs. William Henry Moore, of Prentiss, Macon county, to Captain Willis R. Garber, of Twin Falls, Idaho, and the Army Air Forces, was solemnized on Saturday afternoon June 23, at 6 o'clock at the North Avenue Presbyterian church in Atlanta, Ga., with the Rev. Vernon S. Broyles, Jr., officiating.

The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Walter B. Spivey.

Mrs. William Donaldson, of Canton, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and only attendant. She was dressed in a natural colored eyelet embroidered suit with brown accessories and carried an old fashioned nosegay of spring flowers in the pastel shades.

T. Guy Woolford, Jr., acted as best man to the groom.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Columbus Brown. She wore a dressmaker's suit of blue garbadine and her small heart-shaped hat was black outlined with white flowers. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and a shower of white satin markers attached.

Among the Macon county relatives and friends attending the wedding were Mrs. Tearley B. Picklesimer, of Highlands, Mrs. William H. Moore, and Miss Elizabeth Moore, of Prentiss.

Following a wedding supper held for members of the wedding party and out of town guests, the couple left on a trip to Twin Falls, Idaho, on an extended vacation before Captain Garber reports to California for reassignment with the Army Air Force.

MISS ALEXANDER IS MARRIED TO WALTER FURR, JR.

Miss Alice Ethel Alexander became the bride of Walter Eugene Furr, Jr., United States naval reserve on Thursday afternoon, June 14, at 6 o'clock in the Pineville Presbyterian church.

Dr. W. H. Frazier, pastor, officiated. The vows were spoken before a background of greenery, baskets of white gladioli and seven-branched candelabra holding tall, white tapers.

Before the ceremony Miss Belle Johnston, pianist, played "Liebestraum", "Salut d'Amour", "Lord's Prayer" and "Evening Star". Mrs. C. Frederick McArver, sister of the bride, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "I Love You Truly". The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march from "A Mid-summer Night's Dream" was used for the recessional. During the ceremony "Ava Maria" by Schubert was played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, wore a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with a long molded bodice, full skirt that lengthened into a train, and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands. The high neckline featured a yoke of lace. The veil of bridal illusion, which covered her train, was attached to a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a showered prayer book.

The Misses Nancy and Quincy Alexander, of Pineville, twin sisters of the bride, were maids of honor. They wore identical dresses of blue net, fashioned on lines of the bride's and shoulder length headdresses of blue net. They carried old-fashioned nosegays of mixed spring flowers.

The Misses Frances and Katherine Furr, of Franklin, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore pink net dresses and headdresses fashioned like the maids' of honor and carried nosegays.

The bridegroom had as his best man, his father, Dr. W. E. Furr, of Franklin. The ushers were Dr. David A. Wilson of Durham, brother-in-law of the bride, and Charles A. Phillips, United States naval reserve, of Chapel Hill and Northwestern University, Chicago, former roommate of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Alexander, mother of the bride, wore a floor-length dress of dusty pink lace and a corsage of white carnations.

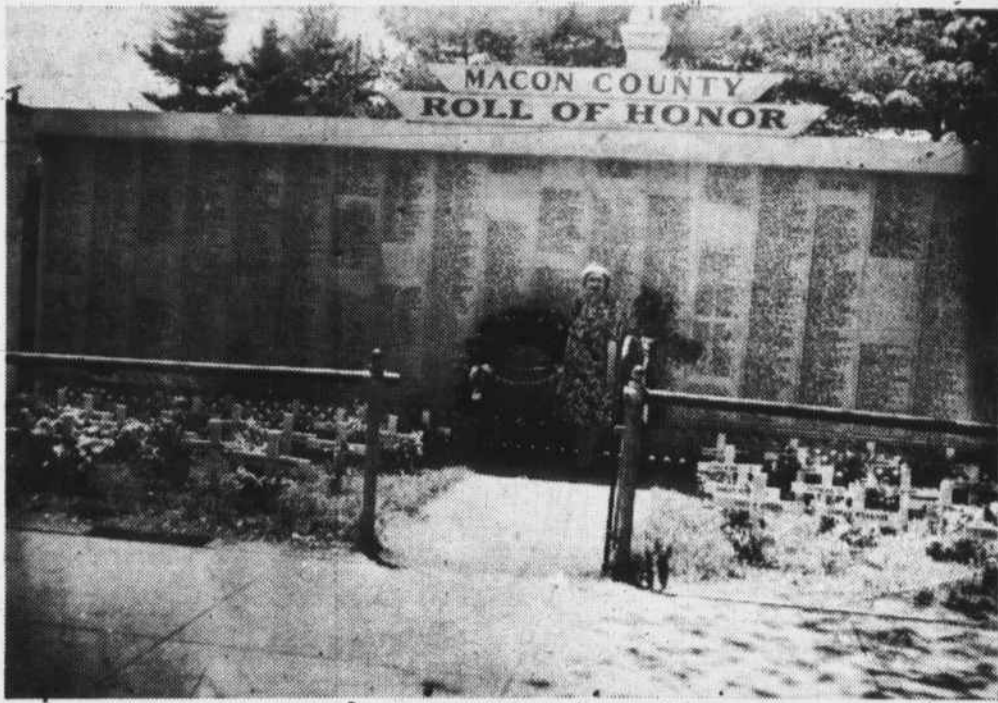

Mrs. Furr, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of pale blue crepe, and a corsage of roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Alexander and the late Dr. Henry Quincy Alexander of Pineville. She is a graduate of Mitchell college and Woman's college of the University of North Carolina from which she received her B. S. degree in Secretarial Administration.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Furr of Franklin. He attended the University of North Carolina, majoring in chemistry, and received his B. S. degree in medicine from the school. He is now a member of the senior class at the Medical school of Northwestern University, Chicago. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa, medical fraternity.

After the wedding, Mrs. Alex-

WILL U. WORRY ASKS... "Are you sure you'll make it?"

"The car shortage is awful...and sure to get worse. Your own right now is probably the oldest car you ever owned. You may not get another for a long time. Will this one really see you through?
"The answer may depend on what you do right now. July and August can be the hardest months of the year on your car's moving parts...battery...tires. They may suffer serious extra wear... unless they have correct summer-attention..."
