MISS BETTY KING BECOMES BRIDE OF LT. TROWBRIDGE

The marriage of Miss Betty King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge King of Highlands and Anderson, and Lieutenant (j.g.) William Joseph Trowbridge, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Trowbridge of Anderson, was solemnized in Highlands Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, July 8 at 4 o'clock. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Thomas N. Carter, pastor of the Baptist church.

The church was decorated with white rhododendron and hémlock and a small bouquet of the same flower marked every other pew. Clusters of Rhododendron were placed in each of the windows.

Mrs. Harvey Trice was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. George Townsend. Mrs. Trice sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile" and "All for You". "O Perfect Love" was sung following the vows. Mrs. Townsend played "To a Wild Rose" and "Because", and the traditional wedding marches. During the ceremony "To an Evening Star" was played softly.

The usher groomsmen were Mr. John Gates, Ensign William Boorhom, Lt. (j.g.) Charles Balles, and Captain Robert R. King, Jr. The best man was Lt. (j.g.) Rodney Lundstrom of Portland, Ore.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Carroll Brown, as matron of honor, and her three classmates of Wesleyan College, Mrs. Douglas Chambers, Mrs. Henry Jennings, Mrs. Charles Miller, and Miss Sara Trowbridge, sister of the groom. Mrs. Brown wore an aqua faille dress with matching mittens, and the bridesmaids wore similar dresses in shades of pink. They carried nosegays of rhododendron and wore the same flower in their hair.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was exquisite in her wedding gown of white faille, cut on simple lines with bodice and long petal-point sleeves, with sweetheart neckline and a full skirt ending in a sweeping train. Her fingertip veil was caught to her hair by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white rhododendron, showered with blossoms.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at King's Inn by the parents of the bride. The spacious porch and living room of the Inn were decorated with Japanese Iris and the bridal motif was carried out in the dining room. Lt. and Mrs. Trowbridge are temporarily at home at the Biltmore Hotel in Atlanta, while Lt. Trowbridge is stationed at the Atlanta naval air base.

The bridal party and a few close friends were honored Saturday morning preceding the wedding by Mrs. M. Brown Edmondson, who entertained with a coca-cola party at V-Z-Top, her summer home on Little Yellow Mountain. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. George W. Woodruff entertained for the bridal party at their summer home near the Country Club.

MISS THOMPSON BETROTHED TO REV. W. T. MEDLIN, JR.

Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson of Highlands has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mary June Thompson, to the Reverend William Tracy Medlin, Jr., of Raleigh and Highlands, the marriage to take place August 7, at Highlands Presbyterian church.

Miss Thompson is the daughter of Mrs. Helen Thompson and the late Dr. H. P. P. Thompson. She is a graduate of Highlands high school and attended Queens College and Western Carolina Teachers' College. Mr. Medlin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Medlin, Sr., of Charlotte, and is pastor of the Highlands Methodist church.

MISS CARTER HONORED WITH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Anne Carter was honored with a surprise birthday party at the Baptist parsonage Sunday evening. Her father, Dr. Thom Carter, was host for the occasion and Miss Daisy Andrews of Phoenix, Ariz., entertained with a number of miramba selections, after which a buffet supper was served.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Talley and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cleaveland, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cleaveland, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hays and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Sutton, Mrs. H. Yarborough, Mrs. A. B. Potts and family, Miss Potts, Miss Betty Potts, Miss Margaret

BENEFIT BRIDGE AT WOLF RIDGE, JULY 25

A benefit bridge party will be held at "Wolf Ridge", the home of the Misses Marguerite and Clarissa Ravenel, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, July 25. This event, which has often been a part of the summer season at Highlands, is open to residents and visitors. Proceeds from the party will go to the Highlands Museum and Laboratory.

Tables will be $2.00 and those wishing to make reservations in advance may do so by telephoning or notifying Mrs. Robert Hager, who is in charge of arrangements. Non-playing guests are also welcome for the occasion, for which a charge of twenty-five cents will be made. This offers summer visitors an opportunity to see "Wolf Ridge" and its marvelous views.

Highlands Flower Show To Be Held August 4

Mrs. Elliot Caziarc, chairman, announces that plans are well under way for the annual Highlands Flower Show, to be held at the Museum on Saturday, August 4.

Flowers may be entered this year under any one of seven different classes; flower arrangements for table or floor, in copper, silver, glass, pewter or pottery containers; specimens, one to three, in quart jars, or milk bottles; native flowers or foliage; miniature arrangements; children's displays; fungi or mosses; aquatic arrangements. In addition to the ribbons awarded in each of the classes, a gold ribbon will be presented to the Best of Show, chosen by popular ballot of those in attendance.

All residents of Highlands area are eligible to take part in the show. Those planning to enter flowers are urged to communicate with Mrs. Joe Massey or Mrs. Elliot Caziarc, chairman, in order that proper preparations for their exhibits may be made.

Other members of the flower show committee besides Mrs. Caziarc, are Mrs. Jack Wilcox, Mrs. Clark Foreman, and Mrs. Kenyon Zahner. Aiding the committee are Mrs. S. C. Therrill, and Mrs. Ryman.

Flower Slides To Be Shown At Museum

A showing of Kodachrome slides of native Blue Ridge Mountain flowers will be presented in the Highlands Museum Wednesday, July 25, at 8:15 p. m. by Ralph M. Sargent. The showing is open to the public free of charge.

Mr. Sargent points out that the Highlands region is the richest area in the United States for native flowering. Besides offering colored pictures of many familiar flowers of the mountains, such as azaleas and galax, this showing will enable visitors to become acquainted with some of the rarer and lesser known plants of the Blue Ridge, including orchids, walking ferns, and the unique Franklin tree.

New Policeman Appointed For Highlands

W. L. Watson has succeeded Ed Rogers as village policeman. Mr. Rogers was retired July 1 on a state pension following twenty-one years of faithful service as police chief. Oscar Dills, who has been serving as assistant to Mr. Rogers, has also been given a year-round appointment on the Highlands police force.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson, the former Miss Mary McKinney, and their two children, Linda and John, are residing in the Silas Johnson cottage on Fifth street.

Wiley, Mrs. Florence Perkins, Miss Margaret Neely, Miss Louise Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Witherell.

FOR THE RECORD

Movements for the public good are frequently launched with great enthusiasm, but sometimes die out because sustained effort is lacking.

This is not true of the North Carolina beer industry's self-regulation program to maintain wholesome conditions in the retail sale of this beverage of moderation.

Continued with diligent effort since its launching in May, 1939, our Committee's program has won the praise and support of the law enforcement officers, the press and the public.

We promise there will be no let-up in our efforts.

Our Country Needs Still More Used Fats

... and We're the Folks to Save Them!

OUR domestic supplies of fats and oils will be approximately one and one-half billion pounds less than last year. Yet thousands of tons are still needed to help make countless essentials for the battle- and home-fronts.

We country people must remember that because of the meat situation, we are in a better position to save fats than city folks. That's why we can't afford to miss a trick!

So let's save not only the big amounts from frying and roasting, but also meat trimmings and plate scraps. Melt them down and add the liquid fat to the salvage can. Skim soups and gravies. Every drop is important.

When your salvage can is full, take it to your butcher and get 2 red points and up to 4¢ for each pound. If you have any difficulty, call your County Agent or Home Demonstration Agent.

100,000,000 More Pounds of Used Fats Are Needed This Year!
