Still Captured In Rainbow Springs Section

A 65 gallon capacity copper still was seized by J. P. Bradley, sheriff of Macon county, Walter Dean, deputy sheriff, and Harley H. Mashburn, in the Rain-bow Springs section of Macon county, near the Clay county line, it has been reported by Mr. Dean.

Six men were at the still which was in operation, but at the approach of the officers, made their escape into a nearby laurel thicket. Approximate-ly 1,200 gallons of beer and a large quantity of whiskey was destroyed. Also a Dodge automobile was taken into custody.

The officers made another raid and captured a 30 gallon copper still in the Walnut Creek section of the county. The still was not in operation, but a large quantity of beer was in making, which was destroyed.

Special Deer Hunt Scheduled For October 15

Through October 27 BREVARD, Oct. 3.-A special deer hunt for the sportsmen of Western North Carolina will be held on the Pisgah National Game Preserve starting on Monday, October 15, and ending Saturday, October 27, Bill Huber, ranger, and J. H. Long+ shore, refuge supervisor, announced today.

The hunt is to be confined to special areas in the forest that have not been hunted on previously or only slightly, and the hunt is for local persons.

All hunters must have a state hunting license and wear red hunting caps. The firearms must be non-automatic rifles of a calibre 250-3000 or 25-35 or larger with the exception of the 32-20 rifle, Ranger Huber said. Bows and arrows, shotguns and tracer bullets will not be permitted. The cost is $1.00

The daily hours for hunting in most areas will be from 7:30 a. m. to 6 p. m., with checking station opening at 6:30 a.m. Only the areas that are open will be hunted and those violating this regulation will be subject to prosecution and cancellation of hunting privileges for five years. All cars will be subject to inspection and intoxipersons will be expelled from the area. The special hunt will open on October 15, 16 and 17 in the area from the North Fork of the French Broad, or the area west of Gloster Gap and south of the Blue Ridge Parkway. This area, which has numerous deer, will be opened from 7:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily and 60 hunters per day will be per-mitted to participate. The checking station will be located on the road from Rosman at the Gloster warden station.

On October 18, 19 and 20, the hunt will be staged on Cathey's Creek and Kuyendall Creek areas, with the checking station at the gate near the entrance Cathey's Creek. Thirty-five hunters will be permitted daily. October 22, the hunt will open on Beaverdam Creek with 25 hunters participating daily. This hunt will continue through the 22, 23 and 24.

The hunt will open on the Turkey Creek area, southeast of Black Mountain and extending to the Preserve boundary, on October 25, and continue through the 27. The hunt will be limited to 25 daily.

The regular hunt will be held this fall, but no announcements have been made.

Franklin Eleven Defeated By Hayesville

In First Night Game In the first night football game ever played in Macon county, a hard fighting Frank-lin high school eleven went down to defeat before a heavier Hayesville eleven by the score Throughout most of the game the teams were evenly matched with neither side being able to gain much ground. In the final quarter, however Hayesville scored on 30 yard pass. The Hayesville extra point was added by a plunge into the line. The defensive play of Horsely and McCloud was outstanding for Franklin.

The Franklin second string defeated the Sylva second string 13-0 in a game played on the local field Tuesday night.

The flood lights for the field were made possible by the combined efforts of the citizens of Franklin and Macon county. Group and individual contribu-

Needlework Guild 60th Anniversary

The 60th Anniversary of The Needlework Guild of America is celebrated this week (October 7-13). The Governors of the States are cooperating by en-dorsing the work, which the members are carrying on in exactly the same way seven young girls did 60 years ago, by supplying new clothing and household linen to the needy. through the accredited charities in cities and towns. Only today, instead of seven members and one branch, there are a million members and 650 branches throughout the United States ready to give help during the reconstruction and rehabilitation period, through the Home Service of The American Red Cross, with which the Needlework Guild of America is affiliated. More members are needed and everyone who car-ried on so faithfully, in volunteer war work, can surely spare a little time to help in this great civilian work, which is coming as an aftermath of the war. For information write the injured on V-J day in Australia national headquarters, 1201 as the result of a fall from a Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 7,

Final Rites Held For Frank Fleming Sunday

Funeral services for Frank Fleming were held on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Union Methodist church. The Rev. V. N. Allen, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. W. Jackson Huneycutt, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church, and interment followed in the church cemetery.

Members of the Masonic Order, Junaluska Lodge, No. 145. of Franklin, of which he belonged, acted as pallbearers and had charge of the graveside rites:

The honorary pallbearers included Thad Nichols, Ezekial Dowdle, Jake W. Addington, Ransom Ledford, Carey Cabe and Monroe Ledford.

Mr. Fleming, principal of the Maple Springs public school, died at his home in the Prentiss community, on Thursday evening about 6 o'clock, following a brief illness. He had taught school on Wednesday, made out his school reports in evening and was taken critically ill on Thursday morning, although he had not been well for several weeks.

A native of Greenville, S. C., Mr. Fleming came to the mountains of Western North Carolina about 1916. He came to Henderson county and served as county farm agent for two years, and then went to Swain county and served in the same capacity for six years. In 1924 he came to Macon county and was Agriculture teacher in the Maxwell Farm School on Cartoogechaye and operated the Maxwell Farm for some time. After leaving there he purchased a farm in the Prentiss community and has resided there since.

Mr. Fleming began teaching in the public schools in Macon county about 15 years ago and had taught in different sections of the county. He had also served as Superintendent of the Union Sunday school for the past 14 years and was a steward in the church.

In 1910 he was married to Miss Mollie Burnette, of Greenville, S. C., who survives. Also one son, Flight Officer Frank Fleming, who is stationed at George Field, Ill., a grandson, and two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Henderson, of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Bertha Pittman, of Greenville, S. C.

Bryant Funeral Directors were in charge of the arrangements.

Due To Late Arrival Of Necessary Supplies For Campaign

John M. Archer, chairman of the United War Fund Drive for Macon county, has announced that due to the delayed arrival of part of the essential supplies to be used in the campaign; the opening date has been deferred until Monday, October 8, and will continue for a month, or through November 8.

The quota for Macon county is $7,000, the same as that of last year, but after deducting credits from previous over-sub-scribed contributions, a net goal of about $4,000 has been established.

"It is but natural that people will ask", said Mr. Archer, "why do National War Fund member agencies have to continue serving our service men after V-J day?" He offers the following in reply: USO clubs will be needed overseas and in this country just as long as there is any considerable number of men in service. Demobilization is not expected to be complete until 1947. Entertainment for occupation forces has increased 300 per cent. The number of USO-Camp shows in Europe has increased from 30 to 185 units during the past year. United Seamen's Service now operates in 135 ports around the world, including six established recently in Japan. The job of the USO must continue as long as there are men and material to be taken or brought back from overseas.

Why should the National War Fund member agencies have to continue relief in Europe and elsewhere? President Truman answered this question in his radio broadcast of August 9th in which he said, in part:

. . Victory in a great war is not something you can win once and for all. . . . Victory in a great war must be won and kept won. It can be lost once and for all. after you have won it-if you are careless or negligent or indifferent.

"Europe today is hungry. Ma-ny of the people of Western Europe (not Germany) lack clothes, fuel, tools, and shelter. They lack the means to restore their cities and their factories.

"As winter comes on, the dis-tress will increase. Unless we do all we can to help, we may lose next winter what we won at such terrible cost last spring. Desperate men are liable to destroy the structure of their society to find in the wreckage some substitute for hope. If we let Europe go cold and hungry, we may lose some of the foundations of order on which the hope of world peace must rest.'
