MISS PHYLLIS ANN PAULSON TO WED VEAZEY RAINWATER

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paulson, of Winnetka, Ill., and Palm Beach, Fla., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Phyllis Ann Paulson, to Veazey Rainwater, Jr., the wedding to take place during the mid-winter season.

Miss Paulson is a sister of Henry Merritt Paulson of Flying M. Ranch, Stuart, Fla. She was graduated with honors from Principia college, Elmhurst, Ill., in 1942. She was president of the College Women in her senior year, and a member of the Phi Alpha Eta honorary society. In 1943 she was graduated from Career College in Chicago. Miss Paulson worked in her father's firm in essential war production, was chairman of hostesses of the Palm Beach service center and served as a volunteer for the Victory Canteen. She is a member of the Four Arts Club of Palm Beach and the Palm Beach Round Table. She is also a member of the Junior Friends Auxiliary of Chicago Junior School.

Mr. Rainwater is the son of Charles Veazey Rainwater of "Vztop" Highlands, and Pensacola, Fla., and the late Mrs. Rainwater. His mother was the former Miss Sally Brown Edmondson of Anniston, Ala. His brothers are Brown V. Rainwater, USNR, stationed on Leyte; Crawford V. Rainwater, USNR, stationed in Japan, and Lupton V. Rainwater, ATC, Miami Beach, Fla.

Mr. Rainwater was graduated from Principia College, Elmhurst, Ill., with a B. A. degree, where he was a member of the men's governing board. He is vice-president and director of Hygeia Coca-Cola Bottling Company and affiliated companies of Pensacola, Fla., with plants in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Texas. He served with the USNR censorship, on Dies Committee, Washington, D. C., and was associated with the Bell Air Craft of Marietta, Ga.

Hudson Library To Go On Winter Schedule

Beginning in November, the Hudson Library will resume its winter schedule and will be open on Saturday afternoons only. The opening hours will be from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, according to advices from Miss Gertrude Harbison, librarian, who said the half hour earlier opening would benefit a greater number of people patronizing the library.

Miss Harbison also advises that the library received a number of late books during the summer which helped out with the rental collection. Among those giving books were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Sargent, Miss Minnie D. Warren, Miss Thelma Howell, Colonel Ralph H. Mowbray, Mrs. Henry G. Evans and Dr. and Mrs. J. K. Stoddard.

Resolutions

Be it resolved that in the passing of J. Roy Phillips we, the members of the Highlands P-T-A, have lost a faithful and consecrated friend; the school a loyal and devoted committeeman.

His long and faithful service on our Local and County School Boards has meant much to our school and county. His love for his home, and his interest in our school will ever be an inspiration to us, the members of the Highlands P-T-A.

We wish to extend to his wife and family our sincere sympathy and feeling of deep regret at our mutual loss in the passing of one of our most helpful and devoted citizens.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy spread on the minutes and a copy sent to The Franklin Press.

O. F. Summer, Principal, Highlands School
Mrs. Sidney McCarty, Jr., Secretary, pro tem.

P-T. A. To Meet November 6th

The P-T. A. will meet Tuesday afternoon, November 6, at 3:15 in the science room of Highlands school. All parents and teachers are urged to be present.

After the business session Miss Gertrude Harbison and Miss Dorothea Harbison, librarians of the Hudson Library, will be guests of honor and are expected to have an interesting display of books suitable for children.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Tom Harbison, Mrs. Tudor Hall and Mrs. Sidney McCarty.

Carnival

Given Hallowe'en Night Big Success

The Hallowe'en Carnival given at the Highlands school house by the Parent-Teachers' Association under the direction of Mrs. Walter Watson and Miss Ethel Calloway on last Friday evening was a great success. No admission was charged at the door, but attractions inside were charged for with the result that $242.17 was taken in. Expenses, Mrs. Watson says, will not exceed $25.00.

The first event of the evening was a costume parade in two groups, with Ann Harbison and Tina Harbison as Dopey and Jackie Frost winning first prize in the one to twelve egg group. The second prize in this group was awarded to Jimmy Lowe, a clown, while little Joanne Mayo received third prize as an attractive conventional Hallowe'en merry-maker. Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall, who went as Asiatic Indians, were given first prize in the adult group. Mrs. Elsie Tarry in a Mardi Grass gypsy costume, and Sam Baty as a full dress King Albert, won second prize, and Miss Gertrude Harbison as Jenny Lind won third prize. Judges for this event were Mrs. Elliott Caziarc, Mrs. J. E. Root, and Mr. Seth Baldwin.

The crowning of the King and Queen of the Carnival, which alone netted $64.82, was under the direction of Miss Nina Howard and Miss Veva Howard, who with excellent supervision worked out a plan which was one of the main events of the evening. Richard Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.

E. Potts, and Mary Della Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rogers, both of the seventh grade, were crowned King and Queen and were enthroned in true Carnival style. All teachers had worked diligently on this event, but the seventh grade under Mrs. Martin finally won the honor.

Other attractions of the evening included several booths, a Chamber of Horrors, refreshments, a Chinese auction, and a sale of a 25 pound turkey, and a chicken sale. A great deal of interest was worked up over the Chinese auction, with Monk W. T. Medlin, assisted by Officer Walter Watson, in charge. Mrs. Estelle Talley Crain was winner of the large box of groceries, object of the auction. Edward Potts, recently of the United States Army, was dressed as a Chinese coolie, and managed the fowl sale which brought $53.50.

The silhouette booth was in charge of Mrs. Tom Harbison, the witches fortune booth was in charge of Mrs. Ed Burt, who kept her identity a secret all evening, the food booth was in charge of Mrs. Tom Potts and Mrs. Bill Culbertson, the apple booth in charge of Mrs. W. C. Newton and Miss Frances Crunkleton. At the chamber of horrors Mrs. Bob Lewis and Mrs. A. W. Pierson were in charge. Looking after the refreshments were Tom Potts, Mrs. Ruth Beal, Mrs. Paul Norton, Mrs. Summer.

Many patrons of the school, the school children themselves, and the teachers donated time and material which helped greatly to make the Carnival a success, and Mrs. Walter Watson as chairman of the committee, committeeman Ethel Calloway, and Mrs. Thomas Harbison, president of the P-T. A. have all expressed thanks to all who assisted in the project.

Personal Mention

Gibbons Westbrook of Washington, D. C., is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. L. Westbrook and his aunt, Miss Fannie George Lucas, at their home on the Dillard road. Mr. Westbrook, former technical sergeant in the air corps, has recently received his discharge after three and a half years of service.

Mrs. B. S. Harkins of Highlands and Oxnard, Calif., talked to the fifth grade students at Highlands school Monday afternoon on California, Washington, and Oregon, highlighting her talk with pictures and poetry. Mrs. Harkins' talk was given at the request of the fifth grade teacher, Miss Ethel Calloway.

A meeting of the Highlands United War Relief Fund workers has been called for Thursday night by the chairman, S. C. Russell, when plans will be made for a final thorough canvass of the town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester N. Wright and daughter, Linda, returned to their home in Greenwood, S. C., Monday afternoon following a weekend visit with Mr. Wright's mother, Mrs. Helen Wilson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nicholson of Dearborn, Mich., have taken up residence in Seneca, S. C., after a visit here with Mr. Nicholson's sister, Mrs. Earle Crunkleton and family.

Mrs. John C. Henley, III, and baby son, John C. IV, of Birmingham, Ala., arrived Friday for a visit with Mrs. Henley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon B. Zahner.

Lieutenant and Mrs. George Harrington and small daughter, Carol Ann, of Robin's Field, Macon, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Harrington's sister, Mrs. Frank B. Cook and family at their Highlands Inn apartments.

Mrs. J. A. Hines entertained the Wednesday bridge club with dessert bridge at the first meeting of the season Wednesday at Chestnut Burr cottage. Colorful autumn flowers decorated the rooms where the three tables were in play. Prizes were won by Mrs. H. H. Bailey and Miss Sara Gilder.

Sixteen members of the Maret family from Seneca and Fairplay, S. C., spent Sunday in Highlands visiting Mrs. S. T. Maret. An outdoor picnic lunch was enjoyed in celebration of the birthdays of two members of the family, Mrs. Frank Glass and Mrs. W. C. Gaines.

FRANKLIN HARDWARE CO.

To the People of Macon County:

In last week's issue we advertised in this space that our 1945 drive was headed towards failure.

It looks now that it will be a MISERABLE failure—unless many of us decide to do something now!

Last year we raised over $3,000. This year we are trying to raise just half that sum. To date we have reports totaling $1211. We need to raise $2789 more on or before November 8th when our drive closes.

Shall it be said that in victory we have failed? You have been asked to be generous in victory. Even if we are half as generous as we were in 1943 and 1944 our goal will be reached.

May we count on you—NOW?
