Baptist Church Plans Christmas Program

Plans are being made for the Christmas program at the Highlands Baptist church on Sunday evening, December 23, beginning at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Paul Walden is chairman of the program committee, and will be assisted by Miss Doris Potts and Miss Frances Crunkleton.

Highlands Rotary Dedicates Meeting To Returned Service Men

The Tuesday evening meeting of the Highlands Rotary club was dedicated to returned service men, of whom approximately 20 were present as guests of the club members. The next meeting, on December 11, will be devoted to the question of the proposed bond issue of $400,000 for the erection of schools in Macon county, including a new building at Highlands.

Guy L. Houk, county superintendent of schools, and past district governor of 190th district, will be the guest speaker, according to an announcement by S. C. Russell, president of the Highlands club.

Personal Mention

Mrs. William Way, Jr., will be hostess at the December congregational supper meeting of the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Elsie Tarry on Satulah Mountain.

Harold McConnell, of the U. S. Navy, has been promoted to Chief Water Tender on the "Tuscaloosa", and his younger brother James McConnell has been promoted to Water Tender first class on the same ship. The "Tuscaloosa" participated in many campaigns in the European theater and the South Pacific, and was the flag ship when landing on the coast of Normandy. The McConnell brothers are sons of G. R. McConnell and the late Mrs. McConnell of Shortoff and grandsons of Mrs. Mary Zachary of Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson, their daughters, the Misses Ann and Jane Anderson, and Miss Caroline Hall attended the funeral of Mr. T. J. Ruckner in Hartwell, Ga., Sunday. Mr. Ruckner was the father of Mrs. Jack M. Hall of Atlanta, formerly of Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Burgess have returned to Highlands and are occupying their home on Spring street. Mr. Burgess was recently discharged by the Government after three years in the signal air corps.

Miss Charlotte B. Elliott and Miss Esther Elliott left Tuesday for a visit with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Huger Elliott, in Philadelphia. They will attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Esther Cunningham, in Scarsdale, N. Y., before returning home.

News was received here last Thursday of the death of Mrs. M. M. Hunter at her home in Pendleton, S. C., on that day. Mr. Hunter died six years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter spent several summers in Franklin and were close friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis of Highlands, whom they visited many times. Going down on Sunday for a visit at the Hunter home were Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mrs. J. W. Reese, Jr., and children, Louis, Martha and Ronald Reese.

The very low temperatures of last week, when the thermometer registered about ten in the early mornings, was followed by rising temperatures and slight rains Sunday night and Monday, with indications of snow.

To Appear In Song Service

FRED GENTRY

Minister-Radio Singer To Appear At Baptist Church

Old Songs And Gospel Hymns Will Be Used By Noted Singer

Fred Gentry, an ordained Baptist minister who has been singing over the radio for the past 17 years and has held song services in 543 different churches or places of worship, will appear in a song service at Highlands Baptist church Sunday evening, starting at 8 o'clock.

Using only the old songs and gospel hymns on his radio program and in his song services, Mr. Gentry has done much to keep alive the songs that grow sweeter with the passing of the years.

As evidence of the popularity of his programs, Mr. Gentry has received letters from his radio audience in almost every state in the United States and some from points beyond this country, praising the songs and his singing.

Mr. Gentry's programs hold a special appeal to children. In speaking of this Mr. Gentry said: "Everywhere I go I meet with the little folks who tell me they always listen to me sing, and I get lots and lots of letters from them or from their parents written for them."

The church extends a cordial invitation to the public to hear this gospel singer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dalton have leased an apartment in the home of Miss Ruth Carter on East Main street. Mrs. Dalton is the former Miss Reba Beale, whose marriage to Mr. Dalton was an event of middle November.

Carter Talley has recently been discharged from army service and is back on his job as operator and part owner of the Sinclair Filling Station.

The regular monthly singing convention of Macon county Baptists will be held at the Highlands Baptist church on the afternoon of December 23, beginning at 1 o'clock.

Miss Rebecca Harris received a cablegram from Havana, Cuba, on Wednesday of last week telling of the death of her brother, I. L. Harris, at his home in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cornelius, whose marriage was an event of November 24 in Atlanta, returned to Highlands this week after a wedding trip by plane to Cuba. Mr. Cornelius is owner of Highlands Construction Co.

Master Sergeant Homer Stanfield of Camp Jackson, S. C., was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Harley Smith and family the past week, and also visited relatives in Franklin.

Uncle Sam is making about 4 million tons of food available to liberated European countries and French North Africa this fall.

Only four states have shown a decrease in the number of chickens raised this year. The state of Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee.

By planting both Blakemore and Massey strawberries, the bearing season can be lengthened.

Negro farmers find that buying improved farm machinery on a cooperative basis is especially suited for small farmers.

Survivors include his widow, the former Miss Effie Henry; three sons, James Gibson of Asheville, Eugene of the U. S. army, and Markson of Highlands; three daughters, Misses Doris, Myrtle, and Margie Gibson of Highlands; two brothers, J. T. Gibson of Highlands and F. L. of Central, S. C.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral arrangements were under the direction of Bryant funeral home.

Cotton Cord Tires Greatly Improved

Automobile tires of cotton cord that run 70,000 miles at high speed and greatly improved truck tires have been developed under the stress of war.

The improved cotton cord used in making these tires gave outstanding performance and was much better than standard cord. The first of the experimental tires were made with 90 per cent synthetic rubber and 10 per cent natural rubber.

Director I. O. Schaub says that he expects an improvement in cotton production in North Carolina in 1946. He urges farmers to follow the seven-point cotton program next year, produce cotton of better grade and quality, and reduce production costs.

As to present and prospective supplies, experts predict a sharp decline in carry-over in 1946 and a substantial increase in cotton consumption in for-

Q. What about sprinkling DDT over corn as it is put in the crib to kill the weevils?

A. Dr. B. B. Fulton, research entomologist of the Agricultural Experiment Station, says that he cannot recommend this practice. Preliminary results with a small application of 3 per cent DDT dust indicate that the health of animals may not be seriously affected. With fairly large doses the animals lost their appetites. Dr. Fulton says he is not sure that the DDT will kill all the weevils because the pests start in the field and are carried into storage where they feed in the larval stage inside of the grains of corn or inside the husk, where they do not come in contact with the DDT.

Q. What weight of feathers does it take to get down for one comfort?

A. It generally takes about four pounds, or slightly more. Feathers of ducks, chickens, and geese lose about one-third of their weight when they are de-stemmed, and it takes about three pounds of down for a comfort. Only the soft breast feathers should be saved, and they should be washed in warm suds, rinsed, and thoroughly dried. Some ten pounds of feathers, or more, should be sent to a commercial company at a time for de-stemming.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Traditional Religious Customs Unaffected by Modern Changes

Deep in the hearts of our people is reverence for their loved ones who have passed on.

Streamlined modernity may affect some of our old-fashioned customs, but the traditional religious rites observed in funeral services will continue to reveal the faith that governs and gives purpose to life.
