Our Best Wishes

for

It has been a long, hard, and winding road that liberty has traveled in America since the days of the founding fathers, but the light of freedom still burns brightly in the land of ours, and we have just demonstrated that we still are ready to fight for it.

As we enter 1946, we wish for all our friends the blessings which only freedom can bestow. May we still battle in peace, as we did in war, that our children and our children's children may have liberty.

And may this little greeting serve as another link in the chain of our friendship—for of all the satisfactions that come to the business man, none is greater than the friendships formed and fostered.
