Frady Infant Dies, Rites Held Sunday At Sugarfork Church

Funeral services for Virginia Lee Frady, the five-weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robdy, of the Cullasaja community, were held on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Sugarfork Baptist church, with the Rev. Bill Sorrells officiating. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

The baby died at the home on Cartoogechaye Sunday evening at 10 o'clock, following an illness of four days. Death was attributed to pneumonia.

Surviving are the parents and three sisters, Josephine, Mattie Pearl and Wanda Mae, and two brothers, James and Frank Frady. The paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Frady, Cullasaja, and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Allie Saunders, of Hazelwood, also survive.

Bryant funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

Joseph C. Welch, who is a patient at the Angel clinic, is reported by hospital attendants to be getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holden, of Otto, announce the birth of a son, on January 7, at the Angel Clinic.

The shortage of milk in North Carolina is more critical today than any other time during the war, says John Arey, in charge of Extension dairying at Saate college.
