MISS AMAN BECOMES BRIDE OF CMDR. SCHEUBLE

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Aman of Highlands, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Katharine Paul Aman, to Lt. Comdr. Philip A. Scheuble, Jr. U. S. N. R., on Friday, January 18.

The marriage was solemnized at noon at the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, of Franklin, officiating at the double ring ceremony. An informal wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony, which was attended by a few friends of the family.

The bride wore a dusty pink dress of wool jersey studded with gold stars. Her corsage was of pink roses, violets and white narcissus. Mrs. Scheuble attended Wells college and is a graduate of the Fashion Academy of New York City. During the war she was engaged in engineering drafting and many other war activities.

Comdr. Scheuble is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. Scheuble of Nanuet, N. Y. He is a graduate of the class of '39, the School of Technology, of the City College of New York, and received his navy commission in 1941. His navy assignments included carrier duty in the Pacific, and tours of duty with the production and maintenance division of the Bureau of Aeronautics.

CHILDREN GIVEN MOVIE FOR MARCH OF DIMES WORK

Free admission to a movie of short subjects was given to the students of Highlands school Monday morning as a reward for their contributions in the March of Dimes for the Infant Paralysis Foundation fund.

Former Highlands Pastor Succumbs At Onley, Va., Home

News has been received in Highlands of the death of the Rev. A. N. Lewis on Thursday, January 24, at his home in Onley, Va. Mr. Lewis was married to the former Miss Maymee Helen Rice, sister of L. W. Rice, Sr., and Miss Susan Rice, during his first pastorate, which was the Highlands Methodist church, and the churches included in this charge. He had been a member of the Virginia conference since leaving Highlands, and had held his pastorate at Onley for the past six years, with a material increase in salary last year in appreciation of his services.

In addition to the widow, one son, Morris Lewis, and two grandchildren are among the survivors. Funeral services were held Sunday in Onley.

Batys

Had 7 Sons In Service; Fourth Is Discharged

Pfc. Ronald Baty of the marines, who received his discharge January 10, is the fourth of the Baty brothers to be discharged from service. The other three are Homer, Jack and Joe of the army, all of whom saw overseas service. James Baty, who was killed in action in Bataan, was with the chemical division of the army air corps.

John William Baty of the marines is scheduled to receive his discharge on February 13. A younger brother, Clarence Baty, has recently entered the navy.

The seven brothers are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Baty of Highlands.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Ray

The Old Mill Pond

THE OLD MILL POND, UTILIZING THE SMALL STREAMS THAT TRICKLED INTO IT BUILT UP A RESERVOIR SO THAT, SUMMER OR WINTER, THERE WAS SUFFICIENT POWER TO TURN THE WHEEL AND GRIND THE NEEDED MEAL AND FLOUR.

FROM SMALL STREAMS OF SAVINGS — MONEY PUT AWAY IN VICTORY BONDS, LIFE INSURANCE AND SAVINGS ACCOUNTS — WE BUILD UP FINANCIAL RESERVOIRS THAT WILL SERVE OUR FUTURE NEEDS — AND AT THE SAME TIME, HELP KEEP THE WHEELS OF INDUSTRY TURNING.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Annie L. Westbrook, who spent the past four weeks in Chicago and Washington, D. C., visiting her sons, has returned to her home on the Dillard road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Talley and their two daughters, the Misses Maxine and Mildred Talley, are vacationing in Stuart, Fla., where they are guests at the Rice hotel, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rice, former Highlands residents, who have been residing in Florida for several years.

Harold R. Rideout began work in the Highlands post office Monday morning in the capacity of clerk.

Mrs. Ethel Alderman and her daughter, Miss Lolita Holt, of Atlanta, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Neely. Miss Holt is a graduate of Highlands High school and is taking the nurses' training course at Crawford W. Long hospital in Atlanta.

Mrs. Tudor N. Hall returned home Saturday from the Angel hospital in Franklin where she was a patient for two weeks.

Mrs. A. C. Holt, who has been confined to her home for several days with a sprained back, is able to be about partial home duties and hopes to be out again soon. Mrs. Holt has been organist at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation for a number of years and is very greatly missed on the rare occasions that she is absent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Watkins have returned to their home here after a two weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. Allan Whitworth, and family in Toccoa, Ga., and with Mr. Watkins' niece and nephew in Athens.

Much of the nation's reserve stock of lumber is depleted and timber production is short of the mark which foresters believe should have been turned out with proper care of woodlands.

Kings Buy Big Hotel At Avon Park

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. King, of Highlands and Anderson, S. C., have bought the 120-room fireproof Jacaranda hotel in Avon Park, Fla., and are taking over its operation on February. Their sons, Capt. R. R. King, Jr., who has recently been discharged from the army, and Maj. R. W. King, who is with the army of occupation in Germany, will be resident managers. Capt. King is married and has two children, Mary and Ann. His wife is the former Miss Marianna Bush of Augusta, Ga.

In entering the hotel business, Capt. and Maj. King are following in the footsteps of their father, who has operated famed King's inn at Highlands for the past 20 years. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trowbridge also will be with them this winter. Mrs. Trowbridge is the former Miss Betty King.

The Avon Park purchase will be known as King's Hotel Jacaranda. The hotel faces on Avon Park's famous mall, a botanical garden outside of glass, said to be unequalled in the western hemisphere.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. King, Sr., are already in Avon Park. They will have with them the King's inn chef. An early return to Highlands for the summer season is also planned by Mr. and Mrs. King.
