Mr. Watkins, 21, has been in the service 39 months, his last station having been the U. S. S. Beras. Mr. Penland, also 21 years of age, has served for 34 months, and he last was stationed on the U. S. S. Gasconade.

MOORE HOSPITAL IN NEED OF CIVILIAN ATTENDANTS

Moore General hospital is urgently in need of 25 ward attendants and 25 mess attendants, Capt. G. C. Moore, chief of civilian personnel, announced this week.

Because of the housing shortage in Asheville and vicinity, Moore General is making available to single males who qualify for these jobs room and board if they so desire, Capt. Moore said. A deduction will be made from the individual's salary for room and mess. Barracks have been set aside for single men and they will be fed in the hospital mess.

Ward attendants are paid 50 cents per hour, and mess attendants receive 48 cents per hour.

Applicants may call at the civilian personnel office at the hospital for further information and personal interviews between the hours of 8 a. m. daily except Saturday and Sunday.

Carey Morgan, Bryson City; leadership training, A. Frank Neely, Cherokee, Tudor N. Hall, Highlands, John Archer, Franklin, and Cowan Wilke, Whittier.

Red Letter Days On This State's Calendar Listed

RALEIGH.—North Carolinians, who are notoriously gregarious, are reviving many of their old excuses to get together for fun, and as a consequence will offer many events of interest to tourists.

Wallace will have its Strawberry festival in May, probably around the tenth. The festival comes at the close of the harvest and is climaxed by a dance held in the town's largest tobacco warehouse.

Washington may revive the beautiful Tulip festival in April, coinciding with the blooming of the flowers on the farms of Hollanders at nearby Terra Cela.

The Asheville Mountain Dance and Folk festival is set for August 3, 4, and 5, and the Coastal festival, featuring maritime events, is planned at Morehead City for August 8, 9, 10. At Tryon, winter and spring resorts, there will be a Hound Show and Hunter trials March 27, and a Spring Horse show April 15. Winston-Salem's annual Music festival is scheduled again for the fourth week in July. Elizabeth City is considering a Potato festival.

The calendar for Pinehurst, Sandhills winter resort, includes the 44th annual North and South Woman's Golf championship April 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19, and the 46th Annual North and South Amateur the following week. The 29th annual Pinehurst Horse show is scheduled for April 5.

Wilson will not have its tobacco festival this year, but is laying elaborate plans for 1947.

The Lost Colony performances will begin again on Roanoke Island about July 1, to run for two months. There will be wild pony round-ups both at Cape Lookout and at Ocracoke, probably in July.

Other events are to be announced later.

CHARLES BROWNING TO BE GRADUATED FROM BREVARD

BREVARD.—Charles Lewis Browning, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Browning, of Franklin, will be graduated from Brevard Junior college this spring.

Charles is vice-president of the Dramatics club and secretary-treasurer of the Delphain Literary society.

MEMORIAL
In memory of our mother, Mrs. Pallie Ruth West, who passed away December 8, 1945; age 81.

Our earthly home will be no more
Since Mother went away.
Her life's work here was done
And she could no longer stay.

We'll miss her so as time goes on,
But may we ever be,
As kind and faithful to our Lord
As was she.

Life here passes so swiftly and sure
That may we Lord
In Thee abide, and see the home
That is pure.

HER CHILDREN.

CHRISTIANS AWAKE!

We Need Action NOW!

As an individual, what are YOU doing about the future threat of the Atomic Bomb? . . .

When American fliers dropped their atomic bomb on Hiroshima, the world suddenly awoke to the fact that we have been catapulted into an age in which we must do more than merely wish that war be outlawed from the earth. The time has come when each of us must do something about it.

Our civil and religious leaders, awake to the Christian responsibility that is theirs, are again emphasizing that our only hope is a united Christian brotherhood of men and nations. Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, of New York, stressed this fact recently when he told a gathering in St. Louis:

"We are looking forward to that day, praying for that day, when around the world there may be one Christian fellowship . . . that the Kingdom of God may become a reality upon the face of the earth."

Everyone who calls himself a Christian longs for a united Christianity. Ringing in his ears is the prayer of the Good Shepherd . . . "And other sheep I have that are not of this fold; them also I must bring. And they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd." (St. John 10:16)

Every Christian leader sets a unified Christianity first among his ambitions. Yet so deeply rooted, so apparently insurmountable are the barriers that exist, that our hearts sink as we survey them. But there is a way. The Good Shepherd Himself insists that there is a way, and that way the united prayer of Christians. "All things whatsoever thou ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." (St. Matt. 21:22). "If ye ask anything in My Name, I will do it." (St. John 14:14). "Verily I say unto you: if ye have faith . . . nothing shall be impossible unto you." (St. Matt. 17:20)

This is no time to leave it to the other fellow. The other fellow may be leaving it to you!

Already millions of Christians all over the world are united in a movement of prayer that the will of Christ may be fulfilled. Men differ in their interpretations of what He meant by "one fold and one Shepherd," but no one can mistake His clearly expressed will in this matter. Therefore, let us not debate His meaning. Instead let us unite in prayer that His will be fulfilled.

We are calling upon you . . . upon Christians of every denomination . . . to join in this vital movement. We are asking for only one thing . . . your prayers. We are calling upon you to help organize this necessary and irresistible crusade of prayer so that the disunited ranks of Christians the world over can once more be united at least in prayer.

Membership in this movement is open to all who are in sympathy with our one great purpose . . . the union of all Christians in prayer. Membership requirements are simple. We ask only that you submit your name to be registered as a member . . . and that once each week you say the beautiful Scriptural prayer we will send you. Members are urged, but not obliged to promote the movement among others.

Send for your Free copy of this Scriptural prayer now. It is one that can be said by all who accept Christ as their Savior and regard Him as the one Shepherd of all Christians. A postcard or letter will bring your free copy by return mail. Just send your postcard or letter to:

ONE FOLD MOVEMENT

4422 Lindell Blvd. • St. Louis 8, Mo.

The Catholic Church has always taught, teaches now and always will teach that prayers are always answered. The purpose of this advertisement is to encourage Christians of all denominations to pray faithfully and confidently that the will of the Savior may be fulfilled, and that the Kingdom of God may become a reality upon the face of the earth.
