R. C. CARPENTER WEDS KOKOMA, IND., GIRL

Miss Ruth Catherine Cope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Cope, Kokoma, Ind., became the bride of Robert Clarence Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carpenter, of Franklin, on Saturday morning, January 26, at 10 o'clock at the rectory of the St. Patrick's Catholic church in Kokoma.

The Very Rev. Monsignor Robert J. Halpin, performed the ceremony, using the double ring ceremony.

For her wedding costume, the bride chose a poudre blue suit with which she wore a white sheer blouse, black patent slippers, and white hat and gloves. Her shoulder corsage was a lavender orchid.

Miss Elizabeth Cope, sister of the bride, and Ed J. Carpenter, Jr., of Franklin, brother of the bridegroom, were the couple's only attendants. Miss Cope wore a black suit with pink blouse and hat and black suede shoes. Her flowers were a corsage of pink rosebuds and blue sweet-peas, centered by a gardenia.

Mrs. Cope, mother of the bride, was dressed in black with matching accessories. Her flowers also were a corsage of roses, sweetpeas and a gardenia.

Following the wedding ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where more than 50 guests called. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Claude Gatlin and Mrs. Albert Gatlin, aunts of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Cope.

Mrs. Carpenter is a graduate of the Kokoma high school class of 1943. For the past year and one-half she has been employed in Kokoma.

Mr. Carpenter is a graduate of the Franklin high school and attended Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee, for one year. He served in the navy air force for three years. He is at present employed by the Chrysler corporation.

The couple left on a short wedding trip, and for traveling the bride wore her wedding ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will make their home at 900 North Phillips street, Kokoma.

The government no longer requires priorities to get building materials to build, but we will be unable to secure insulation for our Freezer Locker plant earlier than September, 1946.

Therefore, anybody who wishes a refund on locker boxes may obtain it. The money for these locker boxes was put up to enable us to obtain the priorities, and has been held in escrow.

Those who wish refunds, please call at the Western Auto Associate Store or the Variety Store, and we will be glad to write them checks.
