MRS. GILBERT GIVES BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Two tables of players enjoyed the bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. E. R. Gilbert Thursday when she entertained the Card club.

The house was decorated with a profusion of forsythia and jonquils, and a vase of white snapdragons sent to the hostess by Mrs. Elliott Caziarc, who has been spending some time in Atlanta and Clayton, Ga.

The luncheon table was centered with a bowl of jonquils, flanked by Italian figurines holding tiny baskets of forsythia blossoms.

Mrs. Tudor N. Hall was holder of high score, and Mrs. Jack Wilcox was presented with the guest prize.

PLAN SATURDAY DANCES FOR HIGHLANDS FOLKS

The Saturday night dances at Helen's Barn have been so well attended that the management plans to include a Wednesday night dance also, beginning about the first of April. Assisting Mrs. Wilson with the dances is her son, Thomas Barak Wright, former lieutenant in the army air corps. He saw three years of service.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Warner, of Miami, Fla., are occupying an apartment belonging to Mrs. S. T. Maret on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burt, Jr., and their son George, returned home this week from a visit with Mrs. Burt's relatives in Dallas, Texas, making the trip between Dallas and Atlanta by plane.

Miss Elizabeth McCarty, of Windermere, Fla., arrived Friday for a visit with her brother er and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. McCarty, Jr.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Medlin of Robbinsville, spent Saturday here with Mrs. Medlin's mother, Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson, and family. Visiting Mrs. Thompson for the week-end was another daughter, Mrs. D. B. McNamee, of Atlanta.

The Highlands P. T. A. has been busy this week making preparations for a luncheon meeting at Hotel Edwards Thursday, when they will have as special guests the state president, the state field representative, and the district director.

Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Zahner and their son, Robert, spent the past week-end in Atlanta with Mrs. Zahner's mother, Mrs. Edward Lawton. Mr. and Mrs. Zahner were en route to Birmingham for a 10-day visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Henley, III, and their small grandson, John C. Henley, IV, whose christening ceremony is set for March 24.

Miss Deborah Glover has returned to New York City after a 10-day visit here with Col. and Mrs. G. S. Brownell.

Mr. and Mrs. Tudor N. Hall have purchased the former Jack M. Hall cottage on Fifth street, adjoining their property, from Mr. and Mrs. John C. Blanchard, who bought it last year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, Mrs. Carl Zoellner and Miss Dorothea Harbison, Red Cross nutrition class leaders, held a kitchen party with Mrs. Curt Wilson, Mrs. Otis Williamson and Mrs. J. D. Burnette Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Prince, using the same menu used by Mrs. Frances Koeth, Red Cross field representative, in lessons given here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook and daughters, Mary Bascom and Beverly, are planning a trip to Charleston, S. C., this week-end to visit the Azalea gardens. They will be joined in Columbia by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Edwards. The party will be guests at the Francis Marion Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Yetter of Palm Beach, Fla., arrived Saturday and are occupying the summer home of the Rev. Silas Johnson on Fifth street.

Presbyterians Organize New Adult Class

The Highlands Presbyterian church organized a new adult Bible class this week. The Rev. J. B. Davidson, pastor, said this class is to be the vanguard of all efforts toward a more thorough-going Christian education program within the church.

At present the class is composed of all adults in the church, but later when Sunday school rooms are completed, there will be a men's class and a women's class.

The organization is dedicated especially to the parents of children attending Sunday school and offers an opportunity for service in the Sunday school in manifold ways.

The last Sunday in March is official election Sunday, when officers will be elected and the class will choose its teacher or teachers.

All members and friends of the church are cordially invited to join the class and visitors will be welcomed.

Revival

Planned By Highlands Baptists

Revival services are scheduled to start at the Highlands Baptist church Sunday night and continue through the night of March 31. These services will be conducted by Dr. Charles Parker, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, and former chaplain at the Winston-Salem Baptist hospital.

Dr. Thom Carter, pastor of the Highlands church, will serve the Franklin Baptist church Sunday night March 24.

Lehmans Occupy Highlands Home Of William Ways

Major General and Mrs. Alex Lehmann, of Charleston, S. C., are occupying the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. William Way, Jr., on the Buck Creek road for a few weeks. General Lehmann recently was released from active duty in the inspector general's department of the army, after 32 years of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Way, who were here the past week getting their home ready for occupancy by the Lehmans, have returned to Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. Way is chairman of the transportation division of the school of business administration at the University of Tennessee.

Brevard Students Will Give Program At Church

Two young women Bible students of Brevard college will accompany Dr. C. E. Roy to Highlands Sunday and will present a program of special music at the Highlands Methodist church at 11 o'clock, preceding Dr. Roy's sermon. Dr. Roy and the musicians will be dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis.

A sheep shearing champion will be chosen in North Carolina this year to represent the state in national competition at the International Livestock exposition next November.

while their new home on the Walhalla road is under construction.

Miss Mary Anderson spent the week-end at Erskine college, Due West, S. C., visiting her sister, Miss Angela Anderson, a student at the college.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Potts had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. William Way, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn.

Construction Work Going Forward On Home Of Trussells

Construction work is going forward on the C. A. Trussell summer home on Bearpen mountain. The Trussells are residents of Athens, Ga., and have spent a number of summers in Highlands. They expect to have their new home ready for occupancy this season.

The work is being done by the Highlands Contracting company, who also are building the Paul B. Dickman summer home on Bearpen.

The Dickmans are from Ruskin, Fla., and recently spent ten days at the Potts house while the foundations of their summer home were being laid.

AIRLINE HIRING ZOOMS

CHICAGO—In carrying out an expansion program one of the domestic airlines will hire 450 people a month for the next four years. This will add a total of 21,600 new employees to their payroll, which is almost three times as many employees as all the airlines had 10 years ago.

GIANT PILOTS

WASHINGTON—The average airplane pilot when making a turn at 300 miles per hour on a 1,000-foot radius weighs 1,000 pounds. The change in the force of gravity on the pilot's body is so great that it has a pull that is six times that of the normal force acting on his body.

MEDICINE FIGHTER?

When a restless child needs a laxative, it upsets child and mother to give bad-tasting medicine. You don't need!

Triena FOR CHILDREN

Triena is the laxative children don't fight. It's effective, thorough, made with famous senna—yet it tastes good because it's flavored with pure prune juice. When faulty elimination makes your child irritable and fretful, remember the quick relief TRIENA brings. Give Triena. Caution: use only as directed. 30c, large size 50c.
