

Miss Setser Becomes Bride of Bob S. Sloan

Miss Mary Jo Setser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Setser, of Franklin, Route 1, became the bride of Bob S. Sloan, of Franklin, son of W. N. Sloan, of Atlanta, Ga., and of the late Mrs. Sloan, in a wedding ceremony solemnized last Saturday at 4:30 o'clock at the Mt. Zion Methodist church, on Cartoogechaye.

The Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector of the St. Agnes Episcopal church, Franklin, and pastor of the bridegroom, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with a background of greenery, and with baskets of white gladioli on each side of the altar, and candelabra holding cathedral candles, which were lighted by Misses Jane and Margaret Setser, sisters of the bride. During the lighting, Mrs. Henry W. Cabe played "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell.

Richard S. Sloan sang "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Mrs. Cabe at the piano. The "Venetian Love Song" by Nevin also was played by Mrs. Cabe, and "Because" was sung by Mr. Sloan. Mrs. Fred Slagle played "The Flower Song" during the ceremony and the wedding march for the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dusty rose dressmakers suit, and black and white accessories. Her corsage was a white gardenia.

Mrs. Paul R. Kemper, cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a pale blue dressmaker suit and her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

W. N. Sloan, father of the bride groom, acted as best man.

Ushers were George Tessier, Charles Slagle, Phil McCollum and Tom Setser.

The bride's mother was dressed in a black suit and her corsage was of white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, the couple left by motor for a wedding trip in Florida. Upon their return, they will be at home in East Franklin.

Mrs. Sloan is a graduate of the Franklin High school, and attended Brevard college, Brevard. She also is a graduate of the Spencerian Business school, Charlotte, and for the past two years has held the position of home service secretary for the Macon County Red Cross chapter.

Mr. Sloan is a graduate of Christ school, Arden, and attended the University of North Carolina. At present he is county veterans' service officer. For four years he served in the 9th Infantry division, participating in eight campaigns. He holds the Bronze Star for heroism in action, with oak leaf clusters, and the Purple Heart.

The out-of-town relatives and friends attending the wedding included W. N. Sloan, father of the bride-groom, and Miss Timoxena Sloan, aunt of the bride-groom, both of Atlanta, Ga. Dr. and Mrs. T. D. Slagle and two children, Lois and Ned, of Chapel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Mack S. Setser, of Rutherfordton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McNeil and Mrs. Sarah E. Karling, of Shelby, and Miss Harriette Kinnebrew of Atlanta.
