MCCONNELL AND BRIDE SPEND WEEK IN HIGHLANDS

WT-1/c James McConnell of the U. S. navy and his bride, the former Miss Patsy West, of Buchanan, Va., have returned home after spending a week here at the Potts house with Mr. McConnell's uncle and aunt, Postmaster and Mrs. C. C. Potts, his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Zachary, and other Highlands relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. McConnell were married in a ceremony in Rockville, Md., on March 29. The bride wore for her wedding a grey traveling suit with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

WT-1/s McConnell is the son of G. R. McConnell and the late Mrs. McConnell of Highlands, and has been in the navy for the past five years, seeing service in all parts of the world.

GIVE LUNCHEON FOR SATULAH CLUB MEMBERS

Mrs. A. L. Westbrook, former president of the Satulah club, and her sister, Miss Fannie G. Lucas, entertained with a luncheon for members of the club Friday at their home on the Dillard road. The monthly business session was held in the afternoon.

Personal Mention

Miss Mary Bascom Cook was honored with a surprise birthday party at Highlands inn April 4 by members of her school class and other friends. Approximately twenty persons enjoyed the occasion.

Mrs. Alexander Kenner of Wilmore, Ky., arrived Monday for a two weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis, while the Rev. Mr. Kenner is conducting a series of revival services in Winston-Salem. Also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Davis is another daughter, Mrs. O. D. Bolton, of Commerce, Ga.

Mrs. Wade Sutton, who has been spending some time in West Palm Beach, Fla., left that city by plane Saturday for a two weeks' visit with her sister in New York City, before returning to Highlands.

After 31 months in the navy, 19 of which was spent in the South Pacific, Louis Eugene Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Potts, has received his discharge and returned home last Friday.

Additional Highlands people who purchased memberships in the North Carolina Symphony orchestra and attended the concert in Franklin last week include Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Sumner and family, Miss Marion Lester, Miss Elizabeth Newton, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hays and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall and family, and Mrs. Carl Zoellner.

Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson, her

BOOKS BOUGHT FOR LIBRARY BY P. T. BODY

New Volumes Displayed At Association's Meeting

Two-thirds of the $400 worth of books the Highlands Parent-Teacher association is buying for the elementary school library have been received and were on display at the April meeting of the association, held last week in the theater building.

In addition to the usual business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Thomas C. Harbison, the program included a solo by Elizabeth Newton, accompanied by Mrs. Jack B. Davidson, and a paper on international relations, prepared and read by Betty Potts, tenth grade student.

The May meeting will feature the annual election of officers and Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson, Mrs. Harry Holt, and Mrs. Davidson were appointed as a nominating committee to present a slate of officers. Hostesses, who served refreshments at the meeting, were Mrs. Harold Rideout, Mrs. Louis Edwards and Mrs. Jay Chapman.

Beales Have Dinner Marking Home-Coming Of 3 Service Sons

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Beale entertained with a family dinner party Saturday night at their home on the Dillard Road, honoring their three sons recently discharged from the service, John and Harry Beale of the marines and James Beale of the army.

Other guests included Mrs. James Beale and daughter, Carol Anne; Mr. and Mrs. George Cleaveland and three children, Raymond, Georgia and Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Norton and son Leslie; Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Dalton; and Miss Hazel Beale. This was the first time in nine years that Mr. and Mrs. Beale have had their family together.

The supper was served buffet style; flower decorations were jonquils and mountain cedar. John Beale, who was here only for the week-end, returned to Waycross, Ga., Sunday afternoon, where he has a railroad position.

two grandchildren, Raymond and Georgia Cleaveland, and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Sumner and their daughter, Mary, spent Sunday in Robbinsville, where they were guests of Mrs. Thompson's son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Medlin, Jr. The group attended services at the Methodist church, of which Mr. Medlin is pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Townsend have returned from a winter's stay in Orlando, Fla., and, after a few days at Hotel Edwards, have opened "Far Horizons," their home at Sunrise View.

Brigadier-General and Mrs. William R. Dear of Tuscaloosa, Ala., have opened "Yon-Way", their home on the Brevard road, for the season.

Roy Potts has been discharged from the navy, after several months of service in the South Pacific, and has returned to his former position in the Highlands post office. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts.

Pierson Inn Is First Of Summer Hotels To Open

Pierson inn was opened for the season the past week-end by Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Moll, of Jacksonville, Fla., who have operated it the past several years. Mr. and Mrs. Moll have been here sometime getting the place ready for opening.

This is the first of the summer hotels to open this season.

Edwards Heads Presbyterian Sunday School

Louis A. Edwards was elected Sunday school superintendent at the Presbyterian church in the recent annual election of officers and teachers. Mr. Edwards succeeds Sidney McCarty, retiring superintendent.
