MRS. ELOISE FRANKS WEDS FRANK H. POTTS

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of Mrs. Eloise G. Franks, of Franklin, to Frank Huffman Potts, of Highlands, in a wedding ceremony solemnized April 3, at amassee, S. C.

Mrs. Potts, former teacher in the Franklin high school, has for the past few years been Macon County superintendent of public welfare.

Mr. Potts, Highlands business man, is connected with the Potts store there, and is a former member of the Macon county board of commissioners.

Following a wedding trip to points in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Potts will be at home to their friends, after April 12, in Highlands.

GEORGIA GIRL WEDS HARLEY C. SANDERS

Miss Lida Mae York, of Madison, Ga., and Harley C. Sanders, of Prentiss, were married in Madison Saturday evening, April 8, at 8 o'clock, at the Methodist parsonage of the Rev. D. P. Johnston, pastor, officiating.

The bride was attired in a blue costume, with which she wore black accessories. She received her education at the Madison High school.

Mr. Sanders, who attended the Maple Springs school, has been employed in the timber business and farming since his return from Australia, where he spent nine months in the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are making their home at present with the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanders, in the Prentiss community.

MISS ANNA SUE HAMMOND WEDS DEAN H. CARPENTER

Miss Anna Sue Hammond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Edward Hammond, of Hickory, became the bride of Dean H. Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carpenter, of Franklin, in a wedding ceremony solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Hickory Sunday afternoon, March 24, at 2 o'clock. The Rev. R. K. Benfield officiated, using the ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar of greenery and ferns, and floor baskets of white gladioli, daisies, carnations, pink snapdragons and Southern smilax, interspersed with candelabra holding lighted white tapers.

Martin Hammond, brother of the bride, lighted the tapers, and Mrs. Martin Hammond directed the guests to the bride's room.

Mrs. Vena Little Goode, organist, played "Poeme," "The Old Refrain" and "Clair de Lune" during the taking of the vows, and the traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional.

The bride wore a blue wool suit with black patent accessories. Her corsage was a purple-throated orchid.

Mrs. James D. Elliott served as matron of honor and the bride's only attendant, while James D. Elliott acted as best man to the bridegroom.

Mrs. Carpenter is a graduate of the Claremont High school and attended Appalachian State Teachers college at Boone and Bob Jones college, Cleveland, Tenn., where she was a member of Chi Sigma Phi.
