Gneiss Man Killed In Truck Mishap

Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Sugarfork Baptist church. The Rev. Frank Reed, of Highlands, officiated, and burial followed in the church cemetery. Surviving are the parents; six brothers, Lewie, Lemmie, Rogers, Cleo, and Sam L. Holland, all of Gneiss, and Pvt. Eugene Holland, of the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort McClellan, Ala.; and four sisters, Mrs. Homer L. McCoy, Mrs. George L. Gregory, and Miss Joyce Holland, all of Gneiss, and Mrs. W. L. Anglin of Franklin.

Bryant funeral directors were in charge of the arrangements.

Home Economics Department Presents

P. T. A. Program

The home economics department of the Franklin school presented an interesting program, showing the work of the department, at Monday night's meeting of the Parent-Teacher association, with Mrs. T. J. O'Neil, home economics teacher, in charge.

A report by Harmon H. Gnuse suggested that the proposed installation of new lighting should be deferred until the school roof is repaired.

Mrs. Weimar Jones and Miss Amy Henderson, the new president and vice-president, respectively, were installed by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, retiring president. Other new officers were absent.

Brain Tumor

Fatal To Nine-Year Old Macon Boy

Ted Hoglen, nine-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett B. Hoglen, of the Hickory Knoll section of Macon county, died at the Duke hospital, Durham, Sunday morning about 6 o'clock. Death was attributed to a brain tumor.

The boy had been ill at his home for several months prior to entering the hospital.

Funeral services were held at the Rush cemetery at Hickory Knoll Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. V. N. Allen, pastor on the Macon Methodist circuit, officiated, and burial followed in the cemetery.

The pallbearers were Frank L. Crisp, Hoyt R. Penland, Charles Stiles, Fred Cunningham, Garland Bateman and Edwin Vinson.

Surviving are the parents and six brothers, R. L., Joseph, Harold, Wilburn, Jack and Gene Holden, all of the home.

Potts funeral directors were in charge of arrangements.

PLAN DECORATION SERVICE AT TELlico BAPTIST CHURCH

The annual home-coming and decoration service at Tellico Baptist church will be held next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Special speakers and various singing classes, quartets and soloists are also expected to take part in the program. Dinner will be served on the church lawn at the noon hour. The public is invited to attend.

Glee Club

Of Brevard College Gives Program Here

The Glee club of Brevard college conducted the 11 o'clock service at the Franklin Methodist church last Sunday.

And next Sunday Dr. E. J. Coltrane, president of the college, will be the speaker at the 11 o'clock service, it was announced.

In addition to last Sunday's musical numbers, the congregation heard a brief talk by the Rev. C. E. Roy, of the school's faculty, on the school's work. Also present for the service was Dean J. J. Stephenson Jr.

The musical program was as follows: "Lovely Appear", by Gounod; "Come Ye Blessed", by Scott, a vocal solo by Miss Annie Lou Robbins; "Thanks Be To Thee", Handel; "Sanctus", Gounod; "Steal Away to Jesus", arranged by Hall, with Miss Gloria Smith giving the solo obligato; "Art Thou The Christ?", O'Hara, a vocal solo by Miss Sarah Kornegay; "Hark, Hark, My Soul", Shelley; "Ave Maria", Schubert, with Miss Katherine Auville playing the violin solo part, and Miss Smith as soprano soloist; and "The Holy City", Adams, a vocal solo by D. P. Miller, the director, given as an offertory. Mrs. Miller was the organist.
