MRS. JONES GIVES TEA FOR MRS. M. J. HALMAN

Mrs. George A. Jones was hostess at a small, informal tea given at the Jones home last Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. M. J. Halman, of La-Grange, Ga., the mother of Mrs. R. S. Jones.

The guest list was made up chiefly of out-of-town ladies and daughters they are visiting here.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth, centered with an arrangement of lemon lilies. Three daughters-in-law—Mrs. R. S. Jones, Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones, and Mrs. Weimar Jones—assisted the hostess in serving.

Miss Dorothy Morrison, who is working in New York, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Morrison, at their home on Franklin, Route 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Ramsey left Thursday for West Point, N. Y., where they will attend the graduation of their son, Albert L. Ramsey, Jr., from the United States Military academy. They will be accompanied by him on their return to Franklin. Their plans call for stop-overs in New York and Washington for a few days en route home.
