John S. Gibson's Descendants Plan Reunion On June 9

Descendants of John Stewart Gibson will hold their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. King at Luada, near Bryson City, Sunday, June 9. It has been announced by Mrs. Frank I. Murray, secretary.

Members of the older generation of this pioneer family now living are Mr. Gibson's two daughters, Mrs. Fannie Dillard, Demorest, Ga., and Mrs. Nancy Cardon, of Leatherman, Macon county; they are the youngest members of the family of 15 children.

A picnic dinner will be served on the lawn at noon. The secretary will report the number of births, deaths and marriages that have occurred in the family since the last reunion.

Macon Youth Wins 4 Fights In Army Boxing Tournament

Pfc. Roy P. Crisp, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Crisp, of Franklin, Route 4, recently won four out of five fights in an army boxing tournament at Fort Dix, N. J., and appeared to be on his way to becoming the light heavyweight champion of the post when he fractured his wrist.

Of his first four fights in the tournament, his parents learned, he won three by knockout and one by decision. Breaking his wrist in the fifth, he lost the fight by decision, and had to withdraw from the tournament on account of the injury.

Kenneth Bryant, Long In Hospital, Discharged

Kenneth Bryant, quartermaster 2/c, who has been in a navy hospital in Corona, Calif., for the past six months, undergoing treatment for serious injuries sustained on V-J day, has received his honorable discharge and returned to his home on Harrison avenue Sunday. The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bryant, he entered the services in April, 1943, and spent most of that time in the Pacific. He now plans to help operate the Bryant Furniture store and funeral home, which his father founded.

Frank I. Murray, Jr., Gets Navy Promotion

Frank Isaac Murray, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Murray, of Franklin, has been promoted to aviation machinist's mate third class. Young Murray, who entered the navy in March, 1945, is now stationed at Camp Shelton, Norfolk, Va., with the naval personnel separation center. He received his training at Norman, Okla., and Great Lakes, Ill. He spent the past week-end here visiting his parents.
