MISS FOUTS ENTERTAINS FOR MRS. ROY J. SETSER

Miss Dorothy Fouts entertained at her home, Franklin, Route 3, Friday afternoon, June 21, with a miscellaneous shower, honoring Mrs. Roy J. Setser, who was Miss Louise Etchison prior to her marriage June 15. Bowls of early summer flowers, including gladioli, Queen Anne's lace, and sweet peas were used in the decorations.

Mrs. Setser received many attractive and useful gifts from the number of friends and neighbors who called during the afternoon. Cookies and punch were served by the hostess.

MISS LOUISE ETCHISON WEDS ROY J. SETSER

Miss Louise Etchison, of Franklin, Route 3, became the bride of Roy J. Setser, of Franklin, Route 1, in a wedding ceremony performed in Clayton, Ga., June 15, with J. C. Green, ordinary, officiating.

The bride was attired in a dress of light blue rayon jersey with which she wore black accessories.

Mrs. Setser is the daughter of Mrs. J. W. Fouts, of Franklin, Route 3, and of J. R. Etchison, of Winston-Salem. She received her education in the Winston-Salem schools and the Franklin High school.

Mr. Setser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawrence Setser, of Franklin, Route 1. He attended the Franklin High school prior to enlisting in the army, in which he spent several months. He recently received his discharge.

Mr. and Mrs. Setser plan to make their home in Franklin.

MRS. CORBIN HAS SHOWER FOR MRS. HOYT LEDFORD

Mrs. Furman Corbin entertained at her home on White Oak street Monday evening with a miscellaneous shower, as a courtesy to Mrs. Hoyt Ledford, a recent bride.

The living room was decorated with bowls of sweetpeas, larkspur, and lilies. A corsage, which was attached to the honoree's chair, was presented to her upon her arrival.

Mrs. Ledford was the recipient of many useful and attractive gifts from the large number of friends who called during the evening.

Assisting Mrs. Corbin in serving cake and punch were Miss Jarvis Ledford, of Franklin, and Mrs. K. R. Helton, of Clemson, S. C., sisters-in-law of the honoree, and Miss Willa Gene McGlamery.

SELF REGULATION

A Sound Principle

Upon the sound principle of Self-Regulation, the North Carolina Committee - United States Brewers Foundation has developed a program which reaches every licensed beer retailer in the state. It is a program that enlightens them as to their legal and social responsibilities, and provides for the correction of any infraction, however small.

It is a program heartily endorsed and supported by local and state law-enforcement agencies. It is a program that works.
