MISS NANCY LEE POTTS TO WED ORVILLE D. COWARD

Frank H. Potts, of Highlands, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Nancy Lee Potts, to Orville Dillard Coward, of Sylva, the wedding to take place in early September in the Highlands Presbyterian church.

The youngest daughter of Mr. Potts and of the late Mrs. Potts, Miss Potts is a junior at Western Carolina Teachers college, where she is a member of the Alpha Phi Sigma honorary fraternity, president of the Wesley club, and feature editor of the college paper, The Western Carolinian. She also is on the staff of The Catamount, college year book, and was a member of the May court this year.

Mr. Coward is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Coward, of Sylva. Following his discharge from the navy, he returned to Western Carolina Teachers College and was a member of the Marshalls club, member of Western Carolina players, advertising manager of the college paper, and a member of the men's house government council. At present he is taking a pre-law course at the summer session of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, preparatory to entering the University in the fall.

Miss Potts also plans to attend the University this fall for her senior year, completing her four-year college course in three years by attending summer school at Western Carolina Teachers college this year.

Blanchard court, Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baty at "Cheonondah" for the Fourth of July holidays were Eli T. Watson, of New York City, and Bailey Patrick, of Hickory. On a 10-day visit to Mr. and Mrs. Baty are Miss Ellen Kroneberger, Mrs. Eva Smith, Miss Anne McCorley and Mrs. Mary Kershaw, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Recent week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Baty were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis and son and Mr. and Mrs. Queen, of Monree, Ga.

Mrs. Thomas F. Parker and Mrs. Peques have returned to Greenville, S. C., after a 10-day visit with Miss Marguerite Ravenel and Miss Clarissa Ravenel at "Wolf Ridge".

Mrs. J. A. Massey of Jacksonville, Fla., former assistant postmaster here, arrived Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Potts, at Fairview inn.

Tickets Go On Sale For Theater Play

Tickets went on sale this week for the Highlands Community Theatre production of "Kiss and Tell", which will be presented at the Highlands Museum Monday, July 22, and Tuesday, July 23, starting at 8:30 p. m. Tickets will be on sale in front of the post office each morning, except Sundays, from now until the date of production, and will also be sold at the Highlands Electric company, Tudor Hall's real estate office, and the Highlands Contracting company.

Although the play has been in rehearsal only a week, it is, according to Director W. James Reese, already taking excellent shape. Several members of the cast will be remembered from previous Community Theatre shows. Fred Allen had the romantic lead in "The Late Christopher Bean", "What a Life", and "Gold in the Hills". Ralph Mobray was last seen as the father in "Gold in the Hills", as were Hampton Saussey and Jack Wilcox, as the detective and bartender, respectively.

Bobbie Curry, who plays the part of Corliss Archer, taken in the movie by Shirley Temple, is a newcomer in the Community Theatre but has had high school and players' experience in Sarasota, Fla. Jane Altstaetter, another newcomer, is the wife of Raoul Altstaetter, whose mother, Mrs. F. W. Altstaetter, has for many years had a summer home in Highlands. Rowena Mahler, who will play Corliss' mother, has had little theatre experience in Cleveland, Pasadena and New Orleans. Highlanders will be interested to know that Mrs. Mahler is the sister of Lee Bowman, Hollywood star. Among the others of the cast, Hugh Sargent and his father, Ralph Sargent, who is president of the Highlands Museum, Kaffy Saussey, Barak Wright, Marion Sutton, Alice Reynolds and John Burbage Westbrook are well known locally.

Additions have been announced to the production staff. Craig Cranston has been made house manager; Kenny Zahner, Malcolm Zoellner and Charles Niblock are assistants to the stage manager, Jack Wilcox; Ann Major and Mary Appley are assistants to Mrs. Tudor Hall, set properties manager, and Mary Young and Flo Saussey to the head properties manager, Jan Chambers. Malcolm Zoellner will assist Ann Strong with make-up.

After making a contribution to the Highlands Museum, where the theatre group has been allowed to rehearse, all proceeds of the play will be added to the Theatre building fund. It is hoped that by next year the theatre will have sufficient funds to erect its own building, the proposed model for which has been on display at the town office and will be on display at the Museum for the rest of the summer season.

Catholics Plan Mass, Picnic At Cliffside

The field mass and parish picnic of St. Johns Catholic church will be held at Cliffside Lake, five miles south of Highlands, Sunday when holy mass will be offered in the Cliffside amphitheatre at 11 a. m., according to an announcement by the Rev. A. F. Rohrbacher. There will be no mass in the Highlands auditorium this Sunday unless the services at Cliffside should be cancelled on account of rain.

ristown, N. J., arrived Monday for a visit with Mrs. Emling's mother, Mrs. E. L. Billstein, at at her summer home on East Main street.

Miss Rebecca Bridges and guest, Miss Mary Morris, of Hopewell, Va., will leave Saturday to spend a week in Thomasville, Ga., with Mrs. Placidia White at Chakri. Mrs. Gaston Torrance of Birmingham, Ala., will occupy Miss Bridgers' cottage, "The Waldorf," on Topside road, during her absence.

Grigsby Wotton and family, of Atlanta, and Jack Wotton and family, of Wilmington, Del., have returned to their homes after spending the month of June at Chestnut lodge, their summer home on Satulah mountain. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kehoe and family, of Miami, arrived this week to occupy the place for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Durkee, of Hollywood, Fla., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Anderson and family for the past week at their home on Fourth street.

A physiotherapy and massage studio has been opened in the post office building by Dimitri Spasoff, Miss Ann Gossage, sage.
