MISS GODWIN, BRIDE-ELECT SHOWN SOCIAL COURTESIES

Mrs. James Cunningham, Mrs. Doyle Blaine and Mrs. John McCollum entertained with a linen shower at the home of Mrs. Cunningham on Wednesday afternoon of last week, honoring Miss Katherine Godwin, whose wedding will be a social event of August 10.

The home was decorated effectively with summer flowers. The table was covered with a white linen cloth centered with a white cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and flanked on each side by crystal candelabra holding white tapers.

Refreshments, consisting of punch, cake, nuts and mints, were served by the hostesses.

The bride-elect was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Mrs. Burton Boesser, of Virginia Beach, Va., Mrs. Edd Davis, of Winston-Salem, aunts of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Eric Detmold, of Winston-Salem, were luncheon hostess Wednesday, at the Kelly Inn and Tea Room as a courtesy to Miss Katherine Godwin and her bridal attendants.

Summer flowers were used as decorations throughout the dining room, and a gift of crystal in her chosen pattern was presented Miss Godwin by the hostesses.

Covers were laid for Miss Godwin, Miss Rachel Welling, Mrs. Doyle Blaine, Mrs. John McCollum, Mrs. John F. Cunningham, Mrs. J. R. Ray, Mrs. James Cunningham, Miss Dorothy Walker, Mrs. Ruth Higdon, and Mrs. Edd Davis.

Mrs. J. R. Ray will entertain the bridal party, members of the family and out of town guests at her home Friday evening with a cake cutting, following the wedding rehearsal.

MRS. MORRISON HONORED AT WINSTON-SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matlock and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Calloway entertained with a buffet supper at the home of the latter in Winston-Salem last Sunday evening as a courtesy to Mrs. J. M. Morrison, mother of Mrs. Matlock, on her 73rd birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Morrison, a resident of the Oak Grove section of Macon county, is spending some time with her daughter in Winston-Salem.

The Calloway home was arranged with bowls of summer flowers throughout the house, and the dining room table was centered with a tiered birthday cake bearing 73 candles. Mrs. Morrison was presented a corsage of sweet peas and a number of gifts.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Carrell Veach, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Calloway, Mrs. J. E.
