NEWS PEOPLE

HELEN RICKMAN WEDS W. P. CONSTANCE

Mrs. Winnie Rickman. Franklin, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Helen Rickman to W P. Constance, also of Franklin, in a candlelight ceremony solemnized on Saturday evening, August 24, at 8 o'clock, at the Cowee Baptist church.

The Rev. Charles E. Parker, pastor of the bride and groom, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with mountain evergreens, baskets of hydrangias, and mixed gladioli interspersed with seven branched candelabra holding white tapers which were lighted Clyde Vance, uncle of the bride, and Roy Rickman, cousin of the bride. The lighted candles in the windows completed the church decorations.

The wedding music was rendered by Miss Zena Pearl Rick-man, pianist, and Miss Mary Vance, soloist "I Love You Truly" was sung by Miss Vance preceding the ceremony and the wedding march from Lohenwas used as the processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used for the recessional.

The bride, who entered alone, was dressed in a light blue gaberdine suit and black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white rosebuds.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Mary Constance, sister of the bridegroom, who served as bridesmaid. She was attired in a light blue suit and black accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

Vernon Stiles, of Franklin served as best man to the bride-

The bride's mother was dressed in a beige suit with which she wore a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Constance, only daughter of Mrs. Rickman and the late Albert Rickman, is a graduate of the Franklin High school and of the Franklin Commer-cial school. For several months she was employed on a defense project at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and for the past year has been employed by the Nantahala Power and Light company here. Mr. Constance is a son of bowl,

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jones had as their guests the latter part invited. Bring basket lunch. John Green and Mrs. daughters, Jo Anne and Melissa, all of Kershaw, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. C. Russell, of Palmetto, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Don Fatick, of Brooksville, Fla., were guests last week of Mrs. J. W. Roper and daughter, Miss Mildred Roper, en route to their homes in Florida.

Mrs D. W. Roquemore, of Wilson, is here as the guest of Mrs. D. M. Bennett.

John M. Smiley, of Fayetteville, was here last week, vis-iting his aunt, Mrs. Nancy Carden, at her home at Leatherman. Other guests of Mrs. Car-den last week were Mr. and Mrs Jim Shepard, of Belmont, John Shepard, of Sylva, George Beasley, of Alarka, and Miss Delilah Ezra Constance, of Hickory, and the late Mrs. Constance, and eceived his education in the Columbus High school, Columous, N. C. He entered the army air force in 1942 and spent two years in overseas service. Since his discharge from the service he has been employed as linesman by the Nantahala Power and Light company.

Immediately following wedding ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Constance leit on a wedding rip through Eastern Carolina. Upon their return they plan to make their home with Mrs. Constance's mother on Iotla street, Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rickman, uncle and aunt of the bride. entertained at a cake cutting party at their home at West's Mill on Friday night for members of the wedding party and a few close friends.

The Rickman home was beautifully arranged with mixed summer flowers. The dining room table which was covered with a lace cloth was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, and flanked on either side with double crystal candelabra holding lighted tapers. Mrs. Hansel Bennett, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch

Fertilizer

4-10-6 For all Fall and Winter Crop Uses

Alfalfa Seed

Borax and Inoculation Red Top, Timothy, Orchard and Rye Grass Vetch, Barley, and Red Clover

Wayne Feed

We have a complete stock to fill all your needs. Also plenty of Timothy Hay and Feed Oats.

Ray Groc. & Feed Co.

- Large Stock of Tin Heaters
- Also Stove Pipe
- Electric Hot Water Heaters
- Electric Heaters
- Portable Grates

MACON COUNTY SUPPLY CO.

"Your Pioneer Hardware Store"

Bradley Reunion to Be Held September 8

The Bradley reunion will be held on Sunday, September 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bingham, near Norris store on the Georgia road, All relatives and friends and anyone who wishes to attend are Green, of Greens Creek.

Mrs. J. B. Deal, Mrs. L. A. Berry, and Mrs. Berry's daugnter, Miss Ethel Berry, of Franklin, Route 4, have been spending a few days with their sister and aunt, Mrs. A. J. Cochran, in Ewing, Va.

Mrs. Nancy Carden, Mrs. Elsie Hurst, and Mrs. Will Ammons attended the Smiley family reunion at Cold Springs, in Swain county, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson and daughter, Miss Minnie Lee Gibson, of Canton, Ohio, have been visiting relatives and Iriends in Macon county.

Mrs. Sidney Godwin, the for-mer Miss Helen Moses, and three children have returned to their home in Wilson, after visiting relatives in macon and Transylvania counties. Mrs. Godwin is a former teacher in the Macon county schools,

The many friends of John M. Archer, III, will be glad to know that he has recovered surriciently from his critical illness o be able to go to school. Chief Petty Officer Joe Pattillo, who is now stationed in Washington, D. C., spent last week-end here with his wife, the former Miss Mary Evelyn Moore.

Miss Louise Kincaid and Mrs. Edward Stene, of Gainesville, Fla., spent Tuesday with Mrs. S. H. Lyle at Trimont Inn.

Jesse Hodgin of Greensboro spent last week at Kelly's Inn. Miss Merrily Brooks spent several days visiting in Atlanta last Miss Ann Lyle has returned from Gainsville, Fla., where she visited her aunt, Miss Woodene Hendrix. M. Monderer of New York

City, is in town on business. Mr. Monderer is owner of the Highlands Briar, Inc.

Miss Mary Willis is expected back from Florida this week. G. L. Crawford left Monday for Chicago, Ill., to accept an engineering position.

Mrs. Frances Tessier and Mrs. William Smith, who have spent the last month in Franklin with their mother, Mrs. Reby Tessier, have returned to their homes in Baton Rouge, La.

Miss Lane Porter has arrived for her wedding which will take place September 10. Mr. and Mrs. James Porter of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Robert Jerome and children of New Bern and Miss Margaret Bryson of Tucson, Ariz., have also come to attend the wedding of Miss Porter to George Browning Goldsmith, Jr. of Greenville and Charleston, S.

Arthur Marr, of Springfield, Ill., is the house guest of Mrs. Gilmer Crawford.

Mrs. Comer Vandiver spent several days in Greensboro last with her husband, Col. Vandiver, who is stationed there with the Army Air Forces.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bradley have returned from Newport News, Va., where they visited Mrs. Bradley's sister.

The Cub Scouts of Frankin held their pack meeting at Camp Lumpkin Saturday night. They were treated to a picnic supper and overnight stay by Cubmaster R. E. McKelvey and assistant Cubmaster H. Eriksson.

Miss Barbara Stockton has gone to Charlotte where she will be a bride's maid in the wedding of Miss Frances Sides, a classmate at Brenau college. From Charlotte, she will go to Gainsville, Ga., to enter her senior year at Brenau.

John W. Edwards, who recently underwent an operation at Angel's hospital, has returned to his home on Bidwell street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wall, of Elberton, Ga., were week-end guests of Mrs. H. O. Cozad. Mrs. Blanche Dickson, of Corpus Christy, Texas, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. E. S. Hunnicutt. Mrs. J. B. Cox and daughter, Barbara Dean Cox, of Norfolk, Va., are visiting Mrs. Cox' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Morrison, and her sister, Mrs. Nora Scales, in the Oak Grove community.

Mrs. H. E. Church has recently returned from a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Rainey, who lives in Nashville, Went Capel, editor of The Thomasville Tribune, Thomas-ville, Miss Dorothy Sloan, of Franklin and Thomasville, Dane Hoover, of East Lansing, Mich., and Miss Mary Kirkman, Wesley Foundation director at Auburn university, are guests here of Richard Sloan this week-end.

Pvt. Fred H. Kinsland, son of Mrs. Tom Kinsland, has returned to his base, San Antonio, Texas, after being called home on account of the death of his father, Tom Kinsland. Cpl. Grady Kinsland, also here because of the death of his father, Tom Kinsland, has re-

Ellijay By HAZEL AMMONS

Rev. Paul Morgan of Franklin, Route 4, Illied Rev. Lee preaching service Crawford's September 1 at the Ellijay Baptist church.

Rev. Lee Crawford and Rev. Gordon Scruggs closed the revival meeting August 18 which they ran for two weeks at the Ellijay Baptist church. Ten were baptised.

Mrs. Frank Henry-of Detroit, Mich., is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lesiey Young and also her mother, in Jackson turned to Fort Lewis, Wash, W. S. Johnson, former publisher of The Franklin Press, spent several days here visiting relatives this week.

Mrs. John Byrne, her mother; Mrs. A. M. Bryant, and two of Mrs. Byrne's children, M.55 Mary Margaret Byrne and John spent the week-end here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Freu siagle. The Byrnes lived here when the late Mr. Byrne was supervisor of Nantanaia National forest.

The Rev. W. Jackson Huneycutt was called to his home at Albemarle the latter part of last week on business.

Miss Lucy Welch and Miss Katherine Conley, who are em-ployed at the American Enka plant near Asheville, spent the week-end with Miss Welch's mother, Mrs. W. E. Welch, Welch's Franklin, Route 3, and with Miss Conley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Conley, Franklin, Route 3.
Mr. and Mrs. Auman Hairr.

of Fuquay Springs, who went to Alaska immediately after their marriage two years ago and have just returned to the States, recently visited at the home of Ray Moses, on their way back to Fuquay Springs.

Lt. (j.g.) Zeb Meadows has completed his training at Stand-ford university, in California, and has left the States for overseas duty. His wife has gone to her home in Brevard, where she will make her home with her parents during Lt. Meadows' ab-

Mrs. J. F. Watson and grandson, Peyton Watson, have returned to their home in Knoxville, Tenn., after spending sometime at the Allen house on County who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Moffitt of Franklin, spent the week-end with Mrs. Moffitt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Kerma Holland and family spent the week-end with Mrs. Holland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Young.

Several people of this community attended the revival meeting which was being conducted by Rev. Lee Crawford and Rev. Gordon Scruggs at the Coweta Baptist church. Several persons from this community attended the baptising at the Coweta church Sunday, Sep-

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buchanan attended the Beasley reunion at Green's Creek in Jackson Coun-

Miss Nannie Ammons is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. L. Ray, of Franklin, Route 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Mash-burn and family and Mr. and Mrs. Zane Wood visited Mrs. Mashburn's sister, Mrs. Richard Ammons, of Cullowhee, Sunday, September 1. Mr. and Mrs. Zarery Moses of Bakerfield, Calif., who have been visiting friends for several weeks, have returned to their home in Bakerfield.

Mr. John C. Henry and some friends of his of Macon, Ga. visited Mr. Henry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry last week-end.

Rev. Morrison and Mrs. Mor rison spent the week-end with and Mrs. Mount Wood.

Mrs. Gorden Evitt visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvan Bowman of Erastus, in Jackson county, last week

Delegates

Attend Future Farmers Convention In Raleigh

Hayes Gregory and James Patterson, delegates of the Franklin school Future Farmers of America, Lewis Penland and George Crawford, contes-tants, recently attended the State convention of the Future Farmers of America.

Mr. Penland received ten dollars as second prize in district public speaking contest. Young Crawford received seven dollars as runner-up in the district live-stock judging con-

J. Whitmire, vocational agriculture teacher at Franklin High school, accompanied the farm delegates and was named chairman of a committee to work out plans to place 42 registered Herford bulls in the state. These animals will be purchased by Sears Roebuck company and selected by Mr. Whitmire

In addition to this Sears Roebuck is also putting up $10,000 for North Carolina Future Farmers. This money is to be used to help stimulate better pasture and hay crops. Mr. Whitmire is also chairman of the committee to work out plans for the pasture and hay work.

Miss Emely Bishop of Gay in Jackson county, visited her brother, Dan Bishop, and Mrs. Bishop last week-end.

Press Ads Pav

— HOME OPPORTUNITIES —

3 new houses in Franklin-good locations-conveniencesprices are reasonable-preference to Veterans this week.

44 acres—good house—8 rooms—water and lights—a dandy home and farm on Cullasaja River-priced to sell.

2 acres-new 5 room house-good road-few miles out-

We have some of the best farm listings that we have had in a long time. See us for your real estate needs.

> Standard Realty Company J. H. STOCKTON

CHECK THESE VALUES FOR YOUR FALL SHOPPING

For that Fall and Winter Suit or Coat, see our complete stocks. Many arrive daily. There's always something new at BELKS. Use the Lay-Away Plan in buying your Fall wardrobe if you wish. We will be glad to explain.

Galoshes

Ball-Band quality. There are all sizes for you now. Better get yours while we have them. Ladies' sizes.

$1.94

Work Shirts

MEN, see our Basement Store stock of Peters, Wolverine and Brown-Bilt oes. There are many styles to select from

$3.95 to $9.30

Books

Please cheek our book department the next time you are in the store. Over 100 new titles added this week.

49c to $3.95

Brunch Coats

Good looking prints in all sizes. Protect your good dresses with these handy house coats. Specially priced.

$2.95

Heavy Plaid Outing

38-inch material for shirts, dresses, etc. This is really an unusual value!

39c yd.

Melton Jackets

32-oz. all wool Jackets for men, in sizes 34 to 46. Heavy zippers, navy blue color.

$7.95

Bed Pillows

8-oz. Stripe Ticking, size 20 x 27. Well made and with bound seams. Filled with crushed chicken feathers.

$1.80

Men's Boots

12-in. Boots with three leather soles Army surplus.

$8.95

Work Gloves

Safety cuffs. Horsehide paim, Rein forced canvas back. Men's sizes.

78c

Shop Caps

Pin stripe. Washable. Blue only.

25c

Army Blankets

ALL WOOL. Everybody knows how good these are. Buy yours while we

$5.95

Monk's Cloth

For draperies, slip covers, etc. This material has unusually fong life and always looks good, Natural cream color only.

$1.00 yd.

BELK'S DEPT. STORE