MISS NANCY POTTS BECOMES BRIDE OF ORVILLE COWART

Miss Nancy Potts, daughter of Frank H. Potts and the late Mrs. Eula Belle Potts, became the bride of Orville D. Cowart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Coward of Sylva, in a candle-light ceremony at the Highlands Presbyterian church Sunday evening, September 8th, at 7:30 o'clock.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jack B. Davidson, pastor, before an altar banked with greenery and interspersed with white delphiniums. Tall baskets of white gladiolus stood on either side of the four candelabra placed beside the altar. Graduated white tapers and hemlock sprays decorated the piano and organ. White dahlias were placed at intervals in the windows where lighted white candles were banked in hemlock.

Mrs. Jack B. Davidson, pianist, presented a medley of wedding music followed by a duet "O Promise Me" by the Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Dupree of Tamassee. Miss Barbara Bess of Sylva, sang "Because" immediately preceding the ceremony. For the processional and recessional the traditional wedding marches were used.

Miss Jessie Potts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an aqua dress with fitted lace top and full net skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink and white asters. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rogers Dillard of Sylva, and Mrs. Steve Potts. They wore pastel yellow net gowns fashioned along similar lines to that of the maid of honor, and carried bouquets of lavender asters. Miss Carol Ann Chapman, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore an aqua net frock. The attendants wore halos of white asters and greenery.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white crocheted net dress, with long fitted sleeves, ending in a train. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book covered with white gardenias and satin streamers.

Ushers were Jack Potts and Steve Potts, brothers of the bride, Kent Coward, and brother of the bridegroom, and James Keener of Sylva.

A reception was held at Linda's immediately following the ceremony. The bridal table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by horse-shoes and flanked by novelty bride-and-groom candles. Mrs.

Fairfield Inn Purchased By Florida Man

The sale of Fairfield Inn last week to Tatum Wofford of Miami Beach, Fla., with its accompanying six thousand acres of land, was one of the largest made in this section in a number of years. The sale price, though not announced, was understood to be $200,000.00.

Frank B. Cook, Highlands realtor, who was given sale privileges on this property a few months ago, represented the purchaser in the deal. The E. H. Jennings heirs, owners of the property, were represented by the R. H. Boyer Realty Company of Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wofford, who have been guests at Highlands Country Club, took possession of their new purchase this week, and are planning immediate development of the property as an exclusive tourist resort to be known as the Tatum Sky club. The Inn has approximately eighty rooms and Mr. Wofford plans the erection of a number of guest cottages around the lake, which has an approximate circumference of five miles. Other planned improvements include a landing field for private planes and a full-sized golf course.

Mr. Wofford is the owner of the Tatum Surf club in Miami Beach.

Satulah Club Elects New President; Other Officers Named At Meeting Held

Mrs. Elizabeth Prince, acting president of the Satulah club since the resignation of Mrs. A. L. Westbrook several months ago, was elected club president at a meeting held Friday afternoon in the club rooms on East Main street. Other officers elected at Friday's meeting were Mrs. J. A. Hines, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. Holt, secretary and Mrs. Carl Zoellner, treasurer.

In addition to the election of officers, one of the main issues before the meeting was the painting of the building in connection with the painting of the library building, which was passed on by a unanimous vote.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the president on the first Friday in October at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when plans will be formulated for winter entertainment features of the club.

W. T. Medlin and Miss Maxie Wright presided at the punch bowls, and the Misses Peggy Potts and Marion Norton assisted with the serving.

Mrs. Dillard Coward, mother of the bridegroom, wore a brown crepe dress and a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Frank Potts wore black crepe figured with fuchsia sequins and an orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from Highlands High school in the class of '44 and attended Western Carolina Teachers college two years. She will complete her education at the University of North Carolina where she will be a senior.

Mr. Coward is a veteran of World War II, and is a graduate of Sylva High school. He attended Mars Hill college and Western Carolina Teachers college. At present he is enrolled in pre-law school at the University of North Carolina.

Following the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Coward wore a cinnamon brown suit with blue pin stripe and brown accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias detached from the bridal bouquet. On their return they will reside in Pittsboro, N. C.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Poteet, Chapel Hill; Miss Burda Nell Southards, Miss Carolyn Leach and Miss Margaret Corbin of Franklin; Mrs. Jack Kehoe and Emmett Kehoe of Miami; Mr. and Mrs. Grady Howard, Miss Ethel Reed, Bud Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cogdill, Boyd Sossoman, Rudy Hardy, Robert Henessee, John Gibson and Miss Mary Margaret Seay of Sylva; Mr. and Mrs. William Way, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn., and the Rev. Mrs. W. T. Medlin of Robinsville.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK POTTS HONOR GUESTS AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potts were honor guests at a party given recently by Major and Mrs. William Way, Jr., at their home on the Buck Creek road.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. John M. Archer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Henry, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Long of Franklin; Dr. Miles Heath of Chapel Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Potts, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Appley, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Baty, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Potts, and Jack Potts of Highlands.

Chinese Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek received his military training in Japan.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB TO HOLD FIRST FALL MEET

The Shortoff Home Demonstration club will hold its first fall meeting Friday afternoon, September 13, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Frank Norton, when "sewing machines, their care and cleaning" will be the topic under discussion. The "husbands' night" annual picnic, held by the club at Cliffside lake recently was well attended in spite of the inclement weather.

MISS JANE WOODRUFF BRIDE OF MR. RICHARD KING

Miss Jane Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Woodruff of Highlands and Atlanta was married to Richard Woodward King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rutledge King of Highlands and Anderson, S. C., in a ceremony Wednesday evening September 4, in the First Presbyterian church in Atlanta. A profusion of Easter lilies and white gladioli decorated the church.

Groomsmen were Alfred B. Michael, Jr., Robert M. Hallock, William Trowbridge, D. Carol Brown, John Hamner, Charles Moore, Jr., Joe Michael, John Detgen and Marshall McDonald. Mrs. Robert Monroe Hallock and Mrs. Alfred B. Michael, Jr., were their sister's matrons of honor. They were gowned in turquoise blue faille dresses fashioned with off the shoulder necklines and full skirts and carried bouquets of Rome glory roses.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. D. Carol Brown, Mrs. James R. Beirnes, Mrs. William Trowbridge, Mrs. R. R. King, Jr., of Avon Park, Fla., and Misses Nevin Adkins, Hayden Fleming, Frances King, Mary Ann Robinson and Mary Lee McGinnis. Their dresses were made like those of the matrons of honor and they carried similar bouquets.

Little Miss Irene Woodruff Michael was flower girl, and wore a dress of pink chevron with lace ruffles. William Troy Bivings, III, was junior groomsman.

Robert Rutledge King, Jr., served as his twin brother's best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a Duchess yoke. She wore long satin mittens with matching lace at the top, and her veil of illusion was trimmed with Duchess lace belonging to her grandmother and caught to a cornet of lace. Her bouquet was of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Piedmont Driving club.

Mr. and Mrs. King will make their home in Avon Park, Fla., during the winter months and in Highlands during the summer season.

MISS DAVIS WEDS ARCHIE PICKLESIMER

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Lena Mae Davis, daughter of Merton J. Davis of South Sanford, Fla., to Archie L. Picklesimer, AMM 3/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman E. Picklesimer of Highlands, who was recently discharged from service. The double ring ceremony was solemnized Sunday, August 25, in Sanford.

The bride wore a two-tone dress with Irish rose lace top and black silk crepe skirt. Her corsage was of red roses and baby's breath, and she wore a crown of red roses in her hair. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Dora Parker, who wore fuchsia crepe and a corsage of mixed flowers. Merton J. Davis, father of the bride, was best man.

Following a wedding trip to the White Mountains and to Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Picklesimer are residing in South Sanford.
