Jack H. Wilcox, clerk of the Town of Highlands for the past three and a half years, has resigned to accept a position as dean of men and head of the department of economics and business administration at Missouri college, Marshall, Mo., where he will hold the rank of full professor.

Dr. J. Ray Cable, who has a summer home in the Mirror Lake section here, is president of the college.

Mr. Wilcox has a Ph.D. degree from the University of Wisconsin and received his Master's degree at Vanderbilt university on a teaching fellowship. He was on the staff of the extension division of the University of Wisconsin for some time, following service during the first World war. He did research work in adult education and community organization in Wisconsin and worked with Aubrey Williams, former head of NYA and now editor of The Southern Farmer, in setting up a juvenile board in Wisconsin.

Mr. Wilcox was in business in Cincinnati, Ohio, for a number of years before coming to Highlands in 1936, where he was engaged in demonstration farming at his place on Billy Cabin mountain before going with the town as clerk.

He will be accompanied to Marshall by Mrs. Wilcox, the former Miss Virginia Randall, of Cincinnati, and their two daughters, Collin and Jeremy. They will retain their place here and will use it as a summer home.

On the eve of his departure, Mr. Wilcox expressed, on behalf of himself and members of his family, appreciation for the many kindnesses shown them during their residence in Highlands. "Highlands has been good to us", he said, adding that the family will look forward to returning in the summers.

MEMORIAL

(Written by Mrs. Shirley W. Kerns, in memory of her brother, who was killed in action May 24th, 1944).

So Long Brother.

Six years ago dear brother,
We said our last farewell.
For your country called, and you obeyed.
For freedom you gladly gave.

Now you sleep in an unmarked
grave
You are now at rest.
Sleep on dear brother, and in peace.
We know you did your best.

For you threw the torch from falling hands
To those who do their best.
They know you sleep in an un-
marked grave,
And that you are at rest.

Sleep dear brother, it is not in vain
For the bearers of the torch
Are on their feet again.
