ERWIN PATTONS HONORED AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Lottie Kelly, Mrs. George B. Patton and Mrs. Earl Justice entertained with a miscellaneous shower at Kelly's Tea Room Wednesday night of last week, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Patton, whose marriage was a social event of September 10. Mrs. Patton is the former Miss Elizabeth Slagle, of Franklin.

George B. Patton greeted the guests, and receiving in the living room and dining room were Miss Kelly, Mrs. George Patton and Mrs. Justice.

The bride's table, where the gifts were placed, was at one end of the big dining room and was covered with a hand-made lace cloth, with a centerpiece of snap dragons, mums, and fern. Autumn leaves and fall flowers were used throughout the house.

At the opposite end of the dining room was a table covered with a hand-made lace cloth, centered with a huge punch bowl in a bed of evergreens, and surrounded by assorted cakes.

Approximately 150 of Mr. and Mrs. Patton's friends called during the evening, leaving attractive gifts.
