MISS MARY EDNA RAMEY MARRIES DETROIT MAN

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ramey, of Otto, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Edna Ramey, of Otto and Murphy, to Harold Hall, of Detroit, Mich., in a candlelight ceremony performed last Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Baptist church in Murphy, with the Rev. J. Alton Morris, pastor, officiating, using the double ring ceremony.

The ceremony was solemnized in front of an altar of greenery, interspersed with white carnations and lighted candles. The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Morris, wife of the officiating minister.

The bride was attired in a suit of light blue, with black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white carnations.

Miss Willie McKinney, of

Murphy, was maid of honor. She wore a pink costume and black accessories, with corsage of white carnations.

Rex Hall, of Detroit, Mich., served as best man to his brother.

Mrs. Hall is a graduate of the Franklin High school and of the Asheville Beauty academy. For the past five years she has worked as beautician in the Candler's Beauty shop in Murphy.

Mr. Hall is the son of Mrs. M. E. Showers and of the late Mr. Hall, of Detroit. He is a graduate of the Detroit High school and of the University of Florida, Miami. He recently received his discharge from the armed forces, after three years' service, and now is a member of the symphony orchestra in Detroit.

Mrs. Ramey, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue gown with black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. Immediately following the taking of the vows, Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on a short wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home in Detroit.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ramey, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Neville Ramey and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ramey, brothers and sisters-in-law of the bride, all of Franklin; and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hall, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, of Detroit. Friends in Murphy were also in attendance.

MISS THELMA SANDERS WEDS JIM HOGSED

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sanders, of Franklin, Route 4, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Thelma Sanders, to Jim Hogsed.

The ceremony was solemnized in Clayton, Ga., October 1, with J. C. Green, ordinary, officiating, in the presence of a few close friends.

The bride was attired in a gray suit and wore black accessories.

Mrs. Hogsed received her education at the Franklin High school and is now employed at Clyde's Cafe here.

Mr. Hogsed, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hogsed, of Franklin, also was educated in the Franklin High school. The couple are residing in Franklin.

GEORGIA GIRL MARRIES JAMES BLAKE ROLAND

Miss Hazel Elaine Cook, of Monticello, Ga., became the bride of James Blake Roland, of Monticello, Ga., and Franklin, Route 3, in a ceremony solemnized September 28 at the home of the Rev. John W. Clark, in Monticello.

The bride wore a blue wool dress and black accessories.

Mrs. Roland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Cook, of Monticello, and is a graduate of the Monticello High school. She was employed in Macon, Ga., following her graduation.

Mr. Roland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roland, of Route 3, is a graduate of the Franklin High school and an army veteran, with service in the Pacific. He is associated with the Starr Lumber company, Atlanta.

MISS GRACE DILLS WEDS HOBART HOLDEN

Miss Grace Dills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dills, of Fairview, Swain county, became the bride of Hobart Holden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holden, of Silver Mine, also of Swain county in a ceremony performed in Clayton, Ga., October 6.

The bride was dressed in a light blue coat suit.

Mr. Holden, who is a veteran of World War II, is now employed at Hewitts with the Nantahala Talc and Limestone company as chief mechanic.

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Holden will make their home with the bridegroom's parents.

MISS ZIMMERMAN WEDS HAYWOOD COUNTY MAN

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mason, of Franklin, have announced the marriage of their niece, Miss Annie Lois Zimmerman, to William W. Stephens, of Waynesville, in a ceremony solemnized October 6 at the home of the Rev. J. Doyle Miller, of Waynesville, who officiated.

The bride was attired in a blue suit and brown accessories.

Mrs. Stephens, a daughter of Sidney Zimmerman and of the late Mrs. Zimmerman, of Franklin, attended the Franklin High school and the Waynesville High school.

Mr. Stephens, is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. N. L. Stephens, of Waynesville. He is a graduate of the Waynesville High school, class of 1932. He recently received his discharge from the armed forces, following three years' service.

Attending the wedding ceremony were Miss Ruby Elliott, of Franklin, and Carl McCracken, of Waynesville.

Following a short wedding trip through Eastern Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens plan to make their home in Waynesville.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB FORMED WITH 17 CHARTER MEMBERS

The Franklin Junior Music club was organized last Saturday afternoon, with 17 charter members.

Mary Alice Archer was elected president; Freda Siler, vice-president; Julia Hunnicutt, secretary; Edith Plemmons, treasurer; Margaret Setser, program chairman; and Mrs. Weimar Jones, sponsor.

At the organization meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Jones, the group voted to hold meetings the second and fourth Saturdays at 3:30 p. m.; to limit the membership to 25; and to devote the dues to purchase of records and of Christmas and Easter carols.

The next meeting will be held with Mary Alice Archer.
