P. T. A. At Highlands To Meet Next Tuesday

The Highlands Parent-Teacher association will meet Tuesday afternoon, and the publicity committee this week issued the following statement:

To the entire public, this notice of, and cordial invitation to, the meeting of the local P. T. A., Tuesday, November 5, at the school house at 3:15 p. m., is given. Refreshments will be served.

This meeting falls on election day. Do your duty at the polls, but don't forget your other civic obligation to your school, an institution caring for many needs of your and your neighbor's children.

Please bear in mind that the first Tuesday afternoon of each calendar month from October to May, inclusive, are meeting days of the P. T. A.

Hardee Voices Thanks To Highlands People

The Rev. Robert M. Hardee, summer pastor of the Highlands Methodist charge, was recently transferred to the Mocksville Methodist church. A card from him reads:

"Please say in your column that we appreciate all of the kind things the Highlands people did for us, and would be happy to have any of them, who are passing our way, stop and spend the night with us. We liked Highlands and the people and think it a wonderful summer resort.

The people of Highlands and the entire charge enjoyed knowing Mr. Hardee and his family and it was with regret that they learned of his transfer by the Methodist conference.

Finish Plans For Carnival Friday Night

Plans for Friday night's carnival sponsored by the Highlands Parent-Teacher association, were well on the way toward completion early in the week. Mrs. Harry Holt, carnival chairman, urges that where possible everyone come in costume, as there will be two costume prizes, one for the grown-ups and one for children.

Chief among the evening's entertainment will be the Chinese raffle and the box supper.

Mrs. Ruth Beal and Mrs. Harry Holt will supervise the "pie walk", and Mrs. Beal, who is anxious to try out the lunch room's new electric stove, will preside over a hamburger stand.

Other features of the evening will include a fortune telling booth, with Mrs. Tudor Hall as the "teller"; an apple bobbing contest, supervised by Mrs. Dewey Hopper; a tour through the chamber of horrors, directed by Miss Peggy Potts; and a tunnel of love, with Mrs. Earl Crunkleton in charge.

The program also will include the crowning of the carnival king and queen, who will be elected by vote.

Birthday Supper Of Episcopal Church Held In Highlands

The October birthday supper meeting of the Episcopal church was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. S. Clarkson last Friday evening.

The delicious chicken supper was served in the dining room, where an arrangement of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves entered the table, with colorful place-mats and lighted candles lending a further festive note.

Those having October birthdays included the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan and Jim Hines, who were presented with appropriate gifts, and Mrs. A. C. Holt, Mrs. W. S. Davis, Mrs. E. R. Gubert, Mrs. A. Rockwell Nall, Miss Ethel Calloway, Mrs. Jack Brockway and Mrs. Clarkson, who were presented with attractive portfolios of note paper, designed and given by Mrs. H. E. Freas, and a dainty handkerchief given by Mrs. Holt.

A short business session was held following the supper.

Next summer's church bazaar was also discussed and the first sewing meeting planned for Friday afternoon, November 8, at the home of Mrs. Jack W. Brockway on the Dillard road.

The custom at the annual birthday meeting is for guests to bring one penny for each year of their age. Twenty-one members were present at Friday's meeting, but the money basket yielded $27, which was turned over to the auxiliary treasurer.

and small daughter, Susan, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Brockway Infant's Christening Rites Held At Highlands

Christening services for Fredricka Jayne Brockway, six months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brockway, were held at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation Sunday afternoon by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector.

Godmothers were her paternal aunt, Mrs. Frank J. Adams, of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., and Miss Lucille Edwards. The baby's great uncle, W. T. Picklesimer, recently returned from three years' overseas army service, was the godfather.

Fredricka Jayne is named for her maternal grandfather, Fred A. Edwards. Her hand-made christening robe was the gift of her grandmother, Mrs. Fred A. Edwards. The child's mother is the former Miss Estelle Edwards. Grandparents on her father's side are Mrs. Carl W. Brockway of Clinton, N. Y., and the late Mr. Brockway.

Episcopal Church of the Incarnation Friday morning at 10 o'clock by the Rev. A. Rufus Morgan, rector.
