

Copra exports from the Philippines have exceeded expectations and this means more soap. It doesn't do too much good to kill the rats on your own farm; it's community action.

Historical Society Seeks Sketches Of Macon Leaders

The Macon County Historical society is desirous of obtaining short biographical sketches of Macon County men and women whose lives and efforts have affected the history of Macon County, and interested persons are urged to contribute such sketches.

The directors decided to confine the material to persons not now living, and they emphasized that the particular virtues, or vices, of the subjects should be omitted, since what is sought is material of historical value, rather of an obituary nature.

The dates, or approximate dates, of birth and death of the subject, the name of the wife (or husband) and children, the activities in which the person engaged in this county, and the section of the county in which he or she lived are particular desirable in such sketches, it was pointed out. Church and political affiliations are desirable, but not necessary.

Because they know most about the subject, close relatives or descendants of persons who contributed to the building of this county are particularly well fitted to contribute such sketches. It was suggested, it was added that many former residents of this county can make valuable contributions, and are invited to do so.

These sketches should be sent or given to Miss Lassic Kelly, who is in charge of this feature of the society's work.
