Philadelphia Paper Tells
How Lewis Patton, Though
Blind, 'Sees' Grid Clash

How Lewis Patton, of Franklin, enjoys a football game, despite his blindness, is described in a recent feature story that appeared in The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

Lt. Patton, son of Robert A. Patton, is a patient at Valley Forge (Penn.) army general hospital, where he, along with hundreds of other blinded soldiers, is learning to "see" without eyes.

The Bulletin story tells how patients in nearby army and navy hospitals reacted to the recent Penn-Princeton game.

Price Records Must Be Kept For Year, OPA Says

RALEIGH — Businessmen in North Carolina whose prices were formerly under government control must retain their records for one year after the date on which that commodity or field was decontrolled, OPA District Director Theodore S. Johnson has announced. Records of prices paid and received, invoices, bills of lading and other pertinent information concerning prices, previously required by OPA orders, must be kept available "for the businessman's own protection as well as for possible use by OPA," Johnson stated.

Army Recruiting Station
In Franklin Is Closed

The local army recruiting station, which has had offices in the Bank of Franklin building, has been closed, and Sgt. Blaine Livingston, in charge of the station, has been transferred to Winston-Salem. This area in future, it is assumed, will be served by the recruiting station in Asheville. The Asheville station has announced that it will send a recruiter to Franklin November 28 and again on December 12.

The average period of hospitalization in Veterans administration hospitals is now 23 days.

Among those attending were Lt. Patton, though this was not his first recent game. Of the Franklin man, the story says:

"1st Lt. Lewis Patton, 22, of Franklin, N. C., enjoyed Saturday's game, even though the 20-mm. shells which splashed the B-29 in which he was a bombardier over Osaka, Japan, left him blind.

"Patton followed the game through one of the radios furnished by donors through the Red Cross camp and hospital committee. All blind patients who attend the games are issued radios."

N. C. Banks Win
Award Again For Agriculture Aid

H. W. Cabe, cashier of the Bank of Franklin, has been notified that the banks of North Carolina have received, for the second successive year, the 1,000-point award made annually by the agricultural commission of the American Bankers association to the banks of one of the 48 states for service to agriculture.

Among the agricultural activities of North Carolina banks were the support of 4-H club and Future Farmers of America programs, a phase that has been stressed by the local bank. Illustrating its work in encouraging farm boys was its recent purchase of the Macon County reserve champion baby beef, at the highest price ever paid for a steer in North Carolina.

North Carolina banks, Mr. Cabe said, have received national recognition for their 1946 five-point agricultural program, which emphasizes: soil conservation, banker-farmer meetings, the importance of farmers' holding their U. S. savings bonds, development of local markets for agricultural products, and the keeping of better farm records by farmers and agricultural credit records by banks.
