

Forest Movie Will Be Shown At Dozen Schools Next Week

A motion picture dealing with various phases of forest conservation will be shown at 12 Macon County schools next week, under the sponsorship of the State and U. S. Forest services, it was announced this week by Fred Bryson, State forest county warden. The schools and times of showings follow: Monday, Highdonville at 9 a.

m., Pine Grove at 11:30, and Highlands at 2:30; Tuesday, Holly Springs at 9, Union at 11:30, and Otto at 2:30; Wednesday, Cowee at 9 and Iotla at 2; Thursday, Slagle at 9, and Franklin at 12:30; and Friday, Allison-Watts at 9 and Oakdale at 2. Mr. Bryson added that the State Forest service is providing two specially designed book covers for every sixth grade child in the county. The covers stress the importance of forest conservation, and tell how to preserve the forests.

SUPPER HONORS MRS. EDWARDS AND MR. AND MRS. CORNELIUS

Mr. and Mrs. Lou's Edwards entertained with a buffet turkey dinner Sunday night, celebrating two occasions—the birthday of their mother, Mrs. W. W. Edwards, and the first wedding anniversary of their sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cornelius.

On arriving at the party, Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Cornelius were presented with shoulder corsages of chrysantheums. The home was decorated with a profusion of multi-colored autumn leaves, and the two cakes were hand-decorated with "Happy Birthday" and "Happy Anniversary".

Partners for the after-dinner contests were drawn by matching cut-out faces. In the identification of nationally advertised products, high score prizes were won by Miss Cora Miltimore and Mr. Cornelius. Mrs. Lamar Greene and John Westbrook won the prize in the sewing contest for the best dressed doll.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards were assisted in entertaining by their house guest, Mrs. Edna Shepherd, of Seneca, S. C. The honorees received many attractive gifts.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cornelius, Mr. and Mrs. John Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Green of Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dillard of Dillard, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Jack
