WASTED TIME

"Remember," admonished the professor, "every man should know himself."

"Maybe," countered the flip-pant student, "but in doing so he wastes a lot of time that might be spent making more desirable acquaintances."

Slim's Cows
Are All Aristocrats

Slim Hinea, who owns the Leaf-green Dairy, played host to government inspectors Wednesday. They inspected his barns for cleanliness, his milk for butterfat content, and his cows for health. And they ended up giving Slim a Grade-A record for fine milk!

He was boasting about it over a friendly glass of beer in Andy Botkin's Garden Tavern. Andy says: "I know just how you feel."

And we knew what Andy meant. Under the Brewers' program of Self-Regulation, Andy's tavern is open day and night to inspection by agents of the industry or of the law. And Andy gets a lot of satisfaction out of getting a "clean bill of health" for running a wholesome, law-abiding tavern.

From where I sit, people like Slim and Andy rate a vote of thanks from their communities. They're proud to have their places open to inspection at all times—they know they're running a business that's a credit to the town!
