

Farmers Urged To Turn In 1946 Farm Programs

Macon County farmers this week were urged to turn in their 1946 farm plans at once, so they can participate in the 1947 (AAA) agricultural conservation program. Approximately 575 farmers out of the 2,100 eligible in the county already have made their farm plans for the current year.

MY BABY SON

He's his mother's pride and joy,
Just a darling baby boy;
Just a little one to love,
Sent by God from Heaven above.

His little face, so full and round,
His tiny ears, to catch each sound,
His little button of a nose,
His wee mouth, like a sweet red rose.

His dark eyes, so big and bright,
And his skin, so soft and white,
His silky hair, so straight and black,
His sturdy neck and strong little back.

His tiny hands and little feet,
You'd never guess could be so sweet,
Oh, he's as pretty as a pink;
At least so his parents think.

He's also good as a babe can be,
That's why he's so dear to me.
His pleasant smile and friendly way
Shine out to everyone all day.

My love is only just and right,
Of course he's precious in my sight,
For who's this darling little one?
He's my only precious son.

—Trulla Vinson St. Clair
(Dedicated to Stanley Justus St. Clair, age 4 months, by his mother, Dec. 17, 1946).

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT BEFORE THE CLERK ORDER OF PUBLICATION

NORTH CAROLINA
MACON COUNTY
NANTAHALA POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY
vs
JOSEPH FARISH, ALBERT CLARK and RUTH CLARK ROWE

It appearing from the affidavit of W. C. Penn, Secretary of the NANTAHALA POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY, petitioner in the above entitled action that Joseph Farish, Albert Clark and Ruth Clark Rowe are not to be found in Macon County, and cannot, after due diligence, be found in the State of North Carolina; and it further appearing that a cause of action in favor of the petitioner, and against the respondents, the same being a proceeding under the power of Eminent Domain for the condemnation of a right-of-way for an electric distribution line over and across lands of the respondents, situated in Macon County, North Carolina, and fully described in the petition of the petitioner on file in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of Macon County, North Carolina; and it further appearing that this is one of the cases in which service may be made by publication, for that the respondents are non-residents of the State of North Carolina and own or claim the lands located in Macon County, North Carolina, which the petitioner is seeking to condemn; and it further appearing that the Court has jurisdiction of said cause.

It is, therefore, ordered that service of summons be made upon the said Joseph Farish, Albert Clark and Ruth Clark Rowe, and to that end it is ordered that notice of this special proceeding be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Franklin Press, a weekly newspaper published in Macon County, North Carolina, which said newspaper is the one most likely to give notice of said proceeding to the respondents, setting forth the purpose of same, and requiring the respondents to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Macon County, in the Court-house at Franklin, North Carolina, within ten (10) days after the 17th day of February, 1947, and answer or demur to the petition of the petitioner; and notify them that if they fail so to do the petitioner will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said petition.

This the 17th day of January, 1947.
J. CLINTON BROOKSHIRE,
Clerk of Superior Court for Macon County, North Carolina.

What's Ahead in '47?

There are big things ahead for the South!

How do we know?

Because the Southern Railway "Serves the South."
Because our 50,000 officers and employees get around and talk to Southerners. Because our trains carry Southern products in ever-increasing volume and variety.

All signs point ahead to an era of tremendous growth and prosperity. Factories are going up everywhere, and many more are being planned. Towns and cities are thriving. Best of all, Southerners are facing the future with optimism and confidence.

By continuing to spend millions of dollars for new equipment and for improvements of all kinds, the Southern is preparing today for the traffic of tomorrow... keeping pace with the growing demand for economical, efficient, dependable railroad mass transportation.

With all Southerners continuing to work together, we enthusiastically believe that what's ahead in '47... and in the years beyond... spells even greater prosperity and growth for the Southland.
