a nickel a week . . .

That certainly isn't a lot of money.

And The Press is well worth a nickel a copy. About 100 persons say so every week by buying the paper across the counter at The Press office.

But you can get it for even less!

For a nickel a week for 52 weeks is

$2.60

And The Press is only $2 a year, when you are a regular subscriber.

So it's economy to subscribe.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

Our Democracy encourages and rewards vision and zeal—qualities that make for true greatness.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN POSSESSED THOSE QUALITIES—FROM THE BEGINNING HE MADE THE MOST OF THEM AGAINST GREAT OBSTACLES.

HIS LIFE EXPRESSES FOR ALL OF US THE IDEALISM OF OUR DEMOCRACY—EXEMPLIFIES THE OPPORTUNITY FOR INDIVIDUAL PROGRESS AND ACCOMPLISHMENT OPEN TO ALL AMERICANS.

Mrs. J. C. Gibson. Each year one of the brothers or sisters, on his or her birthday, invites the remaining brothers and sisters and their husbands or wives for dinner.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Dalton received many attractive gifts.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Reby S. Tessier and her son, George Tessier, left Sunday by motor for a week's trip to Louisiana. They plan to visit three of Mrs. Tessier's children and their families, Francis Tessier and Mrs. William S. Smith, of Baton Rouge, and Jack Tessier, of Thibodaux.

Miss Dorothy Jones, of Atlanta, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer A. Jones.

Mrs. Alice Thompson, of Cashiers, formerly of Macon County, underwent a major operation at Angel clinic Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Jo Passmore, of Nantahala, who has been seriously ill at Angel clinic for some weeks, remains quite ill.

Mrs. Howard Stewart, of Franklin, who has been under treatment at Angel clinic for an infection of the hand, is reported much improved.

Mrs. Allen Siler accompanied Mr. Siler to Eckman, Va., where his work is, the latter part of last week, and spent the week-end there.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Pattillo spent the week-end in Macon with Mrs. Pattillo's family.

Mrs. R. E. Pattillo will leave February 7 to spend a fortnight with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Pattillo, in Washington, D. C. Mr. Pattillo, who is in the navy, is stationed in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Roland, who have been living at Oak Ridge, Tenn., for about a year, last week returned to this county, and are living in the Leatherman community.

Chairman W. E. (Gene) Baldwin, of the board of county commissioners, was in Waynesville last Thursday afternoon to attend the annual meeting of the board of the district health department. The district is made up of Macon, Swain, Jackson, Haywood, and Transylvania counties and the Cherokee Indian reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Higgins and daughter, Mrs. Frank Higdon, Jr., are spending several weeks in Florida.

Miss Betty Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Callahan, left last week for Greensboro, where she entered Woman's college of the University of North Carolina. Miss Callahan has been employed in Belk's Department store since it opened here about a year and a half ago, and is well known.

Mrs. Lyman Higdon left Monday on a business trip to Atlanta. She was accompanied by Miss Virginia Bryant.
