

Farm Meets

Well Attended; Schedule For Next Week Listed

The first two in the series of joint farm meetings arranged by the offices of the county agent and the home demonstration agent, held at Slagle school Monday night and Walnut Creek Tuesday afternoon, were well attended, persons present reported.

Two films, "Hay is What You Make It" and "Family Poultry Flocks", are being shown at each gathering, and Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill, home agent, makes a talk on small fruits, illustrated by slides.

The schedule of next week's joint meetings, all to be held at 7:30 p. m., follows:

Monday, Holly Springs school; Tuesday, Olive Hill church; Wednesday, Sealy school; Thursday, Tellico Baptist church; and Friday, Cowee school.

Gneiss

By Mrs. F. E. Mashburn

Sunday school will be held at 10 a. m. at Walnut Creek this Sunday as the pastor of the Buck Creek Baptist church will hold services at the home of George W. Gregory, who has been ill and unable to attend church for the past two years.

Mrs. W. A. Keener has been ill for the past few days. Their grandson, Billy Keener, of Ellijay, is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Keener.

Mrs. Jane Tilson, who has been ill with rheumatism, is reported improving.

Miss Etta Stiwner, who has been working in Baltimore for the last few years, is at home.

Owen Stiwner, who is in the army, is now stationed in Japan.

The Young People's Training union at Walnut Creek, which meets each Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, plans a social hour, in addition to the usual program, the first Saturday in March. The Rev. R. H. Hull and Mrs. Hull and Miss Dairy Hunicutt direct the union.

Negro Science Class Hears Talks By Franks

Mack Franks made a talk Wednesday to the science class of the Chapel (Negro) school, discussing various means of transmitting sound through the use of electricity.

When sickness strikes...

BE PREPARED!

GUARANTEED RUBBER GOODS

Let us tell you how our Rexall Universal Rubber Guarantee benefits you

Former Macon Boy Is Given Honor At Mooseheart School

Marshall Ramey, a former Macon County boy, recently was elected vice-president of the eighth grade of the Mooseheart High school at Mooseheart, Ill., according to word received here this week. He is the son of George B. Ramey.

Following the death of Mrs. Ramey in 1942, Mr. Ramey and his four children went to Mooseheart, where the children were enrolled in the school. Mooseheart is a private, preparatory and vocational school maintained by the Moose fraternity to educate and care for children of members of that organization.

Mr. Ramey, one of the charter members of the local Moose organization, which was organized in 1936, is employed at Mooseheart, where he can be near his children.

Burch Has What He Believes To Be Peace Pipe

Walter M. Burch has left at The Press office, for the public to see, what he believes to be an Indian peace pipe. He bought it, he said, from someone in the Iotla community.

The specimen appears to be made of a light weight stone, and has openings at each end for pipe stems, with a regular small bowl in the center.

Aspinwalls Leaving For Spokane; York Takes Foster Company Post

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Aspinwall who have been active in church and civic affairs since they came to Franklin a year ago, will leave next week to make their home in Spokane, Wash., their former home.

Mr. Aspinwall, who has served as district purchasing agent for the Nantahala Power and Light company, is being succeeded in that position by A. M. York, transferred to Franklin from a position with the Aluminum Company of America at Badin. Mr. York already has assumed his duties here, and plans to move his family—Mrs. York and their two sons—to Franklin as soon as he can find a house.

Mr. Aspinwall was secretary of the Lions club for the last half of last year and served as editor of the club's bulletin, and he and Mrs. Aspinwall have been members of the choir of the Presbyterian church, in which they were active in other capacities.

Mr. Aspinwall was secretary of the Lions club for the last half of last year and served as editor of the club's bulletin, and he and Mrs. Aspinwall have been members of the choir of the Presbyterian church, in which they were active in other capacities.

NEWS about PEOPLE

MISS LOIS WOODY BECOMES BRIDE OF NED FARMER

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Woody, of Franklin, Route 3, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lois Woody, to Ned Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer, of Franklin. The ceremony was solemnized February 1 at Clayton, Ga.

The bride was attired in a suit of light blue, with black accessories. Accompanying the couple to Clayton were Ralph Cunningham and Mrs. Ferdie Higdon, aunt of the bride.

Mr. Farmer is employed by Cecil Pendergrass in the latter's acid wood business.

The couple will make their home for the present with the groom's parents.

MISS VIRGINIA TEAGUE WEDES CLAUDE STAMEY

Mrs. J. A. Reeves, of Franklin, Route 3, has announced the

Our Great America by Mack

MODERN HOME BUILDING AMERICANS ARE AS DEPENDENT ON WOOD AS WERE THE PIONEER SETTLERS. NOT AS EASILY RECOGNIZED AS THE WOOD IN LOG CABINS, TREES TODAY PROVIDE COUNTLESS ITEMS NECESSARY TO THE MODERN HOME.

RAYON FOR DRAPERIES AND FURNITURE COVERINGS IS MADE FROM WOOD PULP.

WALLPAPER COMES FROM WOOD.

WET PAINT

PLASTIC HARDWARE, TELEPHONES AND FIXTURES ARE MADE FROM WOOD.

FIBRE BOARD FOR CABINETS AND WALLS IS MADE FROM WOOD PULP.

SYNTHETIC PAINTS CONTAIN ALCOHOL AND RESINS MADE FROM WOOD.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McGaha, of the West's Mill community, have announced the birth of a son, William Robert, January 30 at Angel hospital, Mrs. McGaha is the former Miss Mattie Pearl Bryson, daughter of Robert T. Bryson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Carpenter, of Franklin, have announced the birth of a son, Stephen Dean, January 31.

A daughter, Avis Coretta, was born January 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Avery Claude Morris at their home, Prentiss, Star Route. Ronnie Earl, a son, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morrill at their home, Franklin, Route 2, January 17.

A son was born to State Patrolman and Mrs. Charles Lyda, of Bryson City, at Angel hospital January 30.

Lewis Patton Given Discharge, Plans To Study Law At U.N.C.

Lewis Patton, son of R. A. Patton, of Franklin, received his discharge from the United States army air force January 31 and is now at the home of his father and his aunt, Miss Olivia Patton, on Harrison avenue.

Mr. Patton, who was discharged with the rank of Captain, plans to enter the University of North Carolina next fall, where he will take up the study of law.

marriage of her sister, Miss Virginia Teague, to Claude Stamey, of the Prentiss community.

The ceremony was performed February 1 at Clayton, Ga. The bride wore a blue and yellow ensemble, with blue accessories. Accompanying the couple to Clayton were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stamey, uncle and aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Lydia Bates.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stamey entertained with a wedding supper at their home.

MUSIC CLUB HEARS PAPER, PIANO NUMBERS

The Franklin Junior Music club had its monthly meeting Saturday, with Paty Lou Phillips as hostess.

A paper on Mozart was read by Caroline Crawford. Piano numbers were given by Beverly Christy, Joan Henderson, Sarah Elizabeth Parker, Laura Lyle, Richard Jones, Freda Siler, and Mary Alice Archer.

During a brief business session, the club voted to impose fines on those absent without good excuse.

Reports on the sale of the symphony concert tickets showed that a good percentage of the tickets had been sold. A social hour was enjoyed after the program.

Personal Mention

J. S. Conley, who is ill at his home on Harrison avenue, continues to improve, members of his family reported Thursday.

U. S. Marshall Charles R. Price has been undergoing treatment at Angel hospital for the past several weeks.

Mrs. Nora Mizell has been undergoing treatment for high blood pressure for the past week at Angel hospital.

H. H. Merrill, of Cashiers recently was admitted to Angel hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Patton returned Wednesday night from a business trip to Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jones and W. W. Sloan left Sunday by motor for Raleigh. From Raleigh, they planned to go to New York. They expected to return to Franklin about Saturday. Mr. Jones went on business, and Mr. Sloan planned to visit members of his family in Raleigh and Washington.

V. F. W. TO MEET

Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet at the LEGION HALL at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, February 12th. All members are urged to be present. Overseas veterans who are not members are cordially invited.

AUCTION SALE

Watch For Date

ON ACCOUNT OF THE WEATHER IT WAS NECESSARY TO POSTPONE

The Auction Sale of the N. H. Parrish Farm

It will be SOLD as soon as the weather opens up. So . . .

Watch for the Sale Date

Home Realty & Auction Company

210-Pound GREEN ASPHALT SHINGLES

Roll Roofing
Brick
Lime and Cement

Plumbing Fixtures

Kitchen Sinks

30-Gal. ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS
40-Gal. ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS
52-Gal. ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS
80-Gal. ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS

Reeves Hardware Co.

Phone 113 Franklin, N. C.

BABY CHICKS

Now on Sale

Shipments received twice a week.

All heavy breeds, sexed and straight run. Leghorns on special order.

Farmers Federation

Phone 92 Palmer Street

Announcement . . .

We wish to announce that we have moved our entire Body and Paint Department from Palmer Street to our new garage building on Main Street. We have experienced body and paint men ready to serve you at any time. Estimates given on all jobs. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Duncan Motor Co.

Main Street Phone 69

SALES SERVICE