MISS DOROTHY DILLS MARRIES IN ARKANSAS

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dills, of Franklin, Route 1, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Dills, to Glen L. Keithler, son of Mrs. Charles Caldwell, of Searcy, Ark., March 2.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the groom's grandmother in Searcy, with the Rev. Samuel Harlan officiating. The bride wore a blue suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mr. Keithler was in service 23 months, 16 months of which he spent on Luzon.

The couple will make their home in Searcy.

MISS RUBY TEEM BECOMES BRIDE OF G. S. ATKINSON

Miss Ruby Teem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Teem, of Cullasaja, became the bride of Gay S. Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Atkinson, of Akron, Ohio, in a ceremony solemnized at the Presbyterian parsonage in Akron February 8. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Lowden, pastor of the church.

The bride was attired in a suit of blue, with which she wore black accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. She is a graduate of the Franklin High school, and for the past three years has been employed in Akron, where she now holds a position with Hamlin Metal products.

The couple at present are visiting the bride's parents, but plan to return to Akron the latter part of this week, where they will make their home.
