18 IN RACES FOR 6 OFFICES AT HIGHLANDS

Four Out For Mayor, 14 Are Candidates For Aldermen

Highlands has a crop of 18 candidates in the races for the six municipal offices to be filled at the May 6 non-partisan municipal election.

Filing for the Highlands election closed Saturday.

Like Franklin, which will hold its municipal election the same day, Highlands has exactly three times as many candidates as offices to be filled.

In Highlands, however, the candidates are not quite evenly divided for the different offices. Four are running for mayor, and 14 for the five seats on the board of aldermen.

Mayor W. H. Cobb recently announced that he would not be a candidate for reelection, and four are seeking the mayor's office: L. W. Rice, Sr., and the three men who filed earlier, Louis A. Edwards, J. Steve Potts, and James O. Beale.

In the races for five seats on the board of aldermen are two members of the present board, J. E. Potts and Harry Holt, and the following: E. Carlton Cleaveland, J. D. Burnette, Thomas C. Harblson, Joseph W. Reese, Jr., E. M. Rogers, Sidney McCarty, W. A. Hays, Claude Calloway, Paul Walden, Will Rogers, Weldon Paul, and George Cleaveland.

Pierson Inn First Highlands Summer Hostelry To Open

Pierson inn, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moll and their son, Johnny Moll, of Jacksonville, Fla., is the first of the summer hotels to open for the season.

In addition to the regular dining room for the use of hotel guests, the Molls have opened a coffee shop, where meals are being served to the general public.

Dr. Matthews Opens Office In Highlands

Dr. William A. Matthews, of Decatur, Ga., former captain in the army, has leased an office building on Fourth street from Charles J. Anderson and expects to begin practice here the first week in May.

The building leased by Dr. Matthews is that formerly occupied as a filling station office by Mr. Anderson, which is being enlarged and redecorated.

Dr. and Mrs. Matthews plan to be year-round Highlands residents if suitable living accommodations can be found.

the winter.

Billy Waller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Waller, who was taken to the Angel hospital in Franklin Saturday night, suffering from an acute illness, is reported much improved.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. William Way, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Potts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Spencer, formerly of Anchorage, Alaska, who were called here last week

Miss Howell To Appear On Program Of Biologists

At a meeting of the Association of Southeastern Biologists in Atlanta Friday and Saturday of this week, Miss Thelma Howell, resident director of the Highlands Biological laboratory, will discuss the opportunities for biological investigations at Highlands, during a symposium on "Biological Field Stations in the Southeast."

During the two-day meeting, the executive board of the Highlands Biological laboratory will hold a special session, when awards of fellowships for the summer and budgetary matters will be discussed. In addition to the scholarships offered by member institutions for student research work, laboratory fellowships as a means of giving financial aid to investigators include the Margaret Cannon Howell fellowship, the Minnie D. Warren fellowship, the Col. and Mrs. John S. Sewell fellowship, established by Dr. Caryl P. Haskins, and the Leonce Fremeaux Wall fellowship, established by Miss Thelma Howell, and recently awarded by the executive board to Dr. Eugene P. Odum, professor of biology at the University of Georgia.

Under the new plan of operation, adopted last year by the Highlands Museum and Biological laboratory, the executive board of the laboratory has the power to formulate all policies and plans for the laboratory that are not inconsistent with the constitution and by-laws of the corporation. With the exception of Dr. Ralph M. Sargent, all members of the executive board are expected to attend the Atlanta meeting.

In her recently published bulletin of the Highlands Biological laboratory, Miss Howell gives a review of the laboratory work from the time of its organization in 1931 through 1946, and says that plans for formal courses this year are being formulated, but that the present facilities of the laboratory will limit these plans to one course in botany and one course in zoology.

spent many summers at Hall house in Highlands. His wife who survives, is the former Miss Deas Hall, of Charleston and Highlands.

Attending the funeral, which was held April 10, were two sisters-in-law from Highlands, Mrs. Charles J. Anderson and Miss Caroline Hall.

Judge Broyles, who was 78, had been on the court of appeals for 33 years, and an Atlanta paper referred to his death as bringing "to an end the career of one of the most colorful personages in the judicial history of Georgia."

Rev. Rachel Kenner Guest Preacher At Highlands Church

The Rev. Rachel Davis Kenner, of Wilmore, Ky., was guest preacher at the Highlands Methodist church Sunday night. Mrs. Kenner spoke on "Ordinary Christians and Extraordinary Christians", using as her text the 5th chapter of Matthew, 47th verse.

Mrs. Kenner and her husband, the Rev. Alexander Kenner, are spending this week here visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Davis.

MARKETING with Marjorie

When April showers come your way, do you have to brave the rain to go marketing... or have you enough staples and canned goods on hand to tide you over till the sun shines again? If you haven't, there's no time like the present for acquiring a "rainy day" shelf... and no place like the A&P for stocking it with fine foods at thrifty prices!

A TOAST TO THIS TOAST

You'll toast cinnamon toast made this way: Mix ½ cup powdered sugar with 1 tsp. cinnamon, and combine with 4 tbsps. butter, creamed. Toast 4 slices of M A R V E L ENRICHED WHITE BREAD on 1 side, spread mixture on other side, and cook under broiler till it bubbles. I always use A&P's MARVEL ENRICHED WHITE BREAD because it toasts so evenly, and is guaranteed fresh by the date on the wrapper.

READ 'EM AND REAP!

In talking to the manager of my A&P the other day, I made a very interesting discovery. He told me that A&P's canned fruits and vegetables are graded according to standards set up by the Department of Agriculture. A&P BRAND is Grade A; SULTANA Grade B; and IONA, Grade C... and housewives can cut our food bills by buying the grade that's best for the way we intend to use the product. For example: I was about to buy a can of A&P BRAND peaches for a pie when the manager pointed out that IONA peaches would be just as good for that purpose because they're equally nutritious, though not as fancy. Since then I've been reading the back panels of all labels very carefully... and profitably. I recommend that you "read 'em and reap", too! You'll be surprised how much helpful information they give.

QUICK TURNOVER

Here's a turnover that's quick to click with folks who enjoy A&P's rich ANN PAGE GRAPE JAM (and who doesn't?). Sift 1 cup flour and ½ tsp. salt; cut in ½ cup shortening; add ¾ cup grated cheese and 2 to 3 tbsps. cold water to make stiff dough. Chill 1 hr. Roll out; cut into 6 to 8 2-inch rounds; put ½ tsp. ANN PAGE GRAPE JAM in center of each and fold over. Press edges with fork; prick top. Bake 10 mins. in very hot oven, 500° F.
