Dr. Eugene Siler, Native Of Macon, Dies In Statesville

Word has been received here of the death of the Rev. Eugene Leon Siler, D. D., a native of Macon County, Friday of last week at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Johnston, in Statesville. Dr. Siler, known to many relatives and friends here as "Gene," had retired as a Presbyterian minister, after holding pastorates in Texas, Louisiana, Georgia, and a number of North Carolina towns. He was 79 years of age. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Johnston, and Mrs. Floy S. England, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Topples From Window, Dies Of His Injuries

he was gone Mr. Guest, then went outside and identified the injured man who had fallen from the window as Mr. Morgan, and called an ambulance. Dewey Morgan was located and, upon asking his father at the hospital what had happened, was told by the injured man:

"The transmission flew out and hit me." According to the death certificate, death was due to intercranial hemorrhages. Funeral services were held at the Watauga Baptist church Monday at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. Lee Crawford, pastor of the church, and the Rev. George A. Cloer conducted the services. Interment followed in the church cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant funeral home.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Penn, who have made their home in Franklin for many years, have moved to their home in Maryville, Tenn., following Mr. Penn's recent retirement from his position with the Nantahala Power and Light company. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Patton are having their home, which the Penns occupied, redecorated, and will move into it as soon as the work is finished. Recently returned from a cruise in South Polar waters, Chief Quartermaster Frank Leach, Jr., have been spending a his parents. He and his family left the latter part of last week to visit Mrs. Leach's family in Pennsylvania. Mrs. J. Q. Wallace, who underwent an operation on each of her eyes last week, returned to her home here Monday from Emory hospital, Atlanta. Mrs. Wallace, who is reported doing nicely, was accompanied to Atlanta by her sister, Miss Elsie Hayes.

William Katenbrink, H. W. Cabe, T. W. Angel, Jr., and James Hauser were in Robbinsville Thursday for the annual Methodist district conference. Misses Betty Sue and Loraine Angel, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Angel spent the week-end at Mars Hill college, visiting their cousin, Cecil Tallent. Sgt. Charles T. Tallent spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tallent, at their home on the Georgia road. He returned Monday morning to Elgin Field, Fla., where he is stationed.
