MISS JAMISON HONORED WITH MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

Miss Carlyne Jamison, of Asheville and Franklin, who will be married this month to Arthur A. Robichaud of Glen Ridge, N. J., was guest of honor Tuesday evening at a miscellaneous shower given by her aunts, Mrs. Lee Guffey and Mrs. Carl Cabe, at the home of the former.

The house was decorated throughout with an assortment of garden flowers. Pink and white crepe paper was used to cover the umbrella which held the numerous and useful gifts for the honoree, and the color scheme was further carried out in the favors and table decorations.

The lace-covered dining room table was centered with a beautifully decorated wedding cake on which stood a miniature bride and groom. The bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Carl Jamison, presided at the punch bowl, and Mrs. Erwin Patton cut the cake.

Guests present were the Misses Dorothy Scott, Ann Cabe, Ruth Angel, Katherine Long, Louise Pendergrass, Nancy Calloway, and Edna Jamison and Mesdames Grover Jamison, Jr., James Denman, Erwin Patton, and little Miss Laura Mae Cabe. Miss Ruth Angel won the prize in the contest.

FIRST N. C. MILLS. Pictured above is the first cotton textile mill built in North Carolina, the forerunner of what is today the state's greatest industry. This "factory" was built in 1813 on a small stream in Lincoln County by Michael Schenck. It was successfully operated until it was burned during the war between the states. At right is a photograph of the old Alamance mill, built in the early 1830's in Alamance County by E. M. Holt who is said to have manufactured the first colored cotton cloth in the South.
