MISS FOUTS BECOMES BRIDE OF PAUL CHILDERS

Miss Dorothy Fouts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fouts, of Franklin, Route 3, became the bride of Paul Childers, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Childers, of Franklin, Route 3, and Pontiac, Mich., in a ceremony solemnized last Sunday at 12 noon at the Iotla Baptist church, immediately following church services.

The Rev. Norman E. Holden, pastor of the church and of the couple, was the officiating minister, using the ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with a profusion of mountain rhododendron, spruce, and ferns interspersed with baskets of white roses. Seven-branched candelabra holding lighted white tapers added to the effect.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Helen Gibson, pianist, who played Schubert's "Serenade" prior to the ceremony and the wedding march from "Lohengrin" for the professional. "I Love You Truly", by Carrie Jacobs Bond, was played softly during the taking of the vows. For the recessional, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, James Reid Fouts, wore a gown of white satin. The bodice was tightly fitted with a long waist line, deep round yoke of lace which was outlined by wide lace, and long sleeves ending in a point over the hand. The full skirt ended in a long train. Her veil of illusion was fingertip and caught to a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses, white gladioli and baby's breath.

Miss Betty Frances Ennis, of Morrisville, Tenn., served as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Maude Etchison, of Morrisville, Miss Dessie Mae Fouts, cousin of the bride, of Franklin, Route 3, Mrs. Hazel Childers Smith, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lula Gray Yates, of Morrisville.

Nyle T. Roper served as best man, and the ushers were Joseph W. Fouts and Marshall J. Fouts, both cousins of the bride.

The flower girls were Nancy Cable, who was dressed in pink net, floor length, and Barbara Ann Cruise, who was dressed in a floor length dress of blue net.

Mrs. Childers is a graduate of the Franklin High school, class of 1940, and of Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee. For the past two years she has been a member of the Clemmons school faculty in Forsythe county.

Mr. Childers received his education in the Franklin High school and spent two years in the armed forces, several months of which was in Germany. He is employed in Pontiac, Mich., where the couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Childers left immediately following the taking of the vows on a wedding trip to points in Tennessee and Kentucky. For traveling the bride donned a suit of white with which she wore brown and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and greenery.

Mrs. Fouts, mother of the bride, entertained with a cake cutting at her home on Saturday night for the wedding couple, members of the wedding party, and a few invited friends.

Miss Jessie Ruth Stewart will return to Cullowhee Sunday to attend summer school at Western Carolina Teachers' college, after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stewart, of Franklin, Route 1.

Mrs. John T. Jones, of Murray, Ky., was matron of honor, and Mr. Jones served as the groom's best man. Also present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roehms, Jim Roehms, Miss Ruth Skellion, and Miss Gladys Skellion.

The bride chose for her wedding a light brown suit with brown and white accessories. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.
